PREFACE

THE COMPILATION OF A COMPLETE, CORRECT LISTING OF ALL PERSONS LISTED IN THIS CENSUS HAS BEEN A RATHER AWESOME TASK WITH THE VARIOUS TYPES OF HANDWRITING AND QUALITY OF COPY. EVERY EFFORT HAS BEEN MADE TO MAKE THIS VOLUME AS COMPLETE AND ACCURATE AS POSSIBLE, BUT SOME ERRORS OR OMISSIONS ARE INEVITABLE IN A WORK OF THIS TYPE. ACCELERATED INDEXING SYSTEMS EARNESTLY SOLICITS CORRECTIONS IN EXISTING ENTRIES WITH CORRECTIONS NOTED. PLEASE SEND ALL SUCH INFORMATION TO: A.I.S., SUITE 600, UNION PACIFIC BUILDING ANNEX 19 WEST SOUTH TEMPLE, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH 84101

SINCE 1900 THE COMPUTER HAS BEEN USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF COMPILING LARGE AMOUNTS OF DATA FROM CENSUS RECORDS. IT WAS SOME SEVENTY YEARS LATER BEFORE GENEALOGISTS WERE ABLE TO RECEIVE ANY DIRECT BENEFITS FROM ITS USE. THE MOST IMPORTANT BENEFIT IS THE NAME INDEX, WHICH, OF COURSE, DOES NOT SOLVE ALL OF OUR RESEARCH PROBLEMS. SUCH PROBLEMS AS SPELLING VARIATIONS, POOR WRITING, FAINT AND ILLEGIBLE FILMS, ETC., WILL REMAIN. DESPITE THESE PROBLEMS, A COMPLETE STATE INDEX WILL BE AN INDISPENSABLE RESEARCH TOOL.

THE UNITED STATES FEDERAL CENSUS IS CONSIDERED ONE OF THE MAIN STIMULANTS IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE COMPUTER. PUNCHED CARDS WERE FIRST CONSIDERED AS A MEANS OF PROCESSING LARGE AMOUNTS OF DATA WHEN SLOW MANUAL METHODS LED TO GREAT DELAYS IN THE TABULATION OF THE 1880 CENSUS ENUMERATION.

THE INVENTOR OF THE MODERN-DAY PUNCHED CARD WAS A STATISTICIAN BY THE NAME OF DR. HERMAN HOLLERITH. HE WAS HIRED BY THE CENSUS BUREAU TO ASSIST IN FINDING A SOLUTION TO THE CENSUS PROBLEM. IN 1887, HOLLERITH DEVELOPED THE CONCEPT OF A CARD, READABLE BY MACHINE, AND SUBSEQUENTLY DESIGNED A CARD SORTER KNOWN AS THE "CENSUS MACHINE."

TABULATING TIME WITH HOLLERITH'S MACHINE WAS GREATLY REDUCED, AND HIS METHODS WERE QUICKLY ADOPTED BY THE CENSUS BUREAU FOR USE IN THE 1890 CENSUS ENUMERATION. HIS MACHINE WAS CAPABLE OF PROCESSING UP TO 80 CARDS PER MINUTE, WHICH MEANT THAT THE 1890 ENUMERATION COULD BE COMPLETED IN LESS THAN THREE YEARS. WITHOUT HOLLERITH'S TECHNIQUES, THE COMPLETION OF THE 1890 CENSUS WOULD MOST LIKELY HAVE CONTINUED BEYOND 1900, VIOLATING THE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION THAT CONGRESSIONAL SEATS BE REAPPORTIONED EVERY TEN YEARS ON THE BASIS OF POPULATION RETURNS.

AFTER COMPLETING THE 1890 CENSUS, HOLLERITH BEGAN CONVERTING HIS MACHINE TO COMMERCIAL USE. IN 1896, HE FORMED THE TABULATION MACHINE COMPANY, WHICH LATER MERGED INTO WHAT BECAME THE INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS MACHINES CORPORATION (IBM). LATER, IN 1944, HARVARD PROFESSOR HOWARD AIKEN, WORKING IN CONNECTION WITH IBM ENGINEERS AND JAMES POWERS PRODUCED THE FIRST LARGE ELECTROMECHANICAL COMPUTER.

JAMES POWERS WAS A MAN WHO HAD FORMERLY BEEN EMPLOYED BY THE CENSUS BUREAU. HE WAS HIRED BY THE BUREAU FOR THE PURPOSE OF DEVELOPING ADDITIONAL MACHINERY FOR USE IN THE 1910 CENSUS ENUMERATION. HIS MACHINES WERE USED SO SUCCESSFULLY FOR THE 1910 ENUMERATION THAT IN 1911 HE FORMED THE POWERS ACCOUNTING MACHINE COMPANY. AFTER A LATER MERGER THIS BECAME THE REMINGTON RAND CORPORATION. IN 1951, AFTER MUCH PROGRESS, REMINGTON RAND PLACED THE FIRST COMMERCIALY PRODUCED COMPUTER (UNIVERSAL AUTOMATIC COMPUTER, UNIVAC I) IN THE CENSUS BUREAU. THE UNIVAC I WAS A TOTALLY ELECTRONIC COMPUTER AND WAS USED BY THE CENSUS BUREAU WITH GREAT SUCCESS UNTIL IT WAS TRANSFERRED TO THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTE IN 1963.

THERE WERE MANY MAJOR PROBLEMS WHICH CONFRONTED EARLY TABULATION EFFORTS; TABULATION OF DATA, ITS PRESENTATION IN GRAPHICAL OR PICTORIAL

FORM, THE CALCULATION OF DESCRIPTIVE MEASURES, AND ITS STATISTICAL ANALYSIS WERE ONLY A FEW OF THE PROBLEMS. IT WAS DISCOVERED THAT THE COMPUTERS ARE BY FAR THE QUICKEST, MOST ACCURATE, AND ECONOMICAL WAY OF ACCOMPLISHING THESE TASKS.

FOR THE GENEALOGIST, THIS MEANS THAT CENSUS INDEXES CAN NOW BE PRODUCED IN RELATIVELY SHORT PERIODS OF TIME, WHEREAS BEFORE IT TOOK MANY YEARS OF HARD, LABORIOUS WORK. ACCELERATED INDEXING SYSTEMS, INC., THE LEADER IN COMPUTERIZED GENEALOGY, HAS REALIZED THE GREAT IMPORTANCE THAT THE FEDERAL CENSUS PLAYS IN GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH, AND IS NOW ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN INDEXING, BY MODERN METHODS, THE CENSUS RECORDS OF THE 18TH AND 19TH CENTURIES.

THE ADVANTAGES OF USING THE COMPUTERIZED CENSUS INDEXES ARE MANY. FIRST, THE ORIGINAL RECORDS ARE READ BY PROFESSIONAL PEOPLE WHO ARE TRAINED IN PALEOGRAPHY; THE CHANCES FOR ERROR IN READING THE OLD WRITING ARE GREATLY REDUCED. SECOND, RESEARCH IS MADE EASIER AND MORE ACCURATE BECAUSE THE COMPUTER INDEX PUTS FAMILY NAMES IN ONE PLACE, IN A MORE READABLE FORM, WITH THE RESULT THAT A PERSON CAN KNOW IN A MATTER OF SECONDS WHETHER OR NOT A NAME IS LISTED IN THE ORIGINAL TEXT. GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH CAN NOW BE DONE IN LESS TIME, WITH GREATER REWARDS, WITH MORE ENJOYMENT, AND BY ANYONE WHO CAN PICK UP A BOOK AND READ THE TYPEWRITTEN PAGES. BOTH PROFESSIONAL AND LAY RESEARCHERS WILL FIND THE INDEXES VALUABLE TOOLS IN THEIR RESEARCH.

UNFORTUNATELY, CENSUS RECORDS ARE NOT PERFECT; TO OUR KNOWLEDGE, THERE DOES NOT EXIST TODAY ANY CENSUS RECORD THAT CAN BE CONSIDERED COMPLETE. OCCASIONALLY, PEOPLE KNOW OF AN ANCESTOR WHO LIVED IN A PARTICULAR PLACE, BUT THEY CANNOT FIND HIS NAME IN THE CENSUS RECORDS. TO HELP UNDERSTAND WHY A NAME MAY NOT BE FOUND, CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

1. ALL OF THE ORIGINAL CENSUS MANUSCRIPT OF A PARTICULAR STATE MAY BE MISSING. EXAMPLES: DELAWARE 1790, WASHINGTON D.C. 1810, GEORGIA 1790.

2. PARTS OF A CENSUS RECORD MAY BE MISSING FOR A PARTICULAR STATE OR COUNTY. EXAMPLES: TENNESSEE 1810, 1820; NORTH CAROLINA 1790; OHIO 1800, 1810; AND GEORGIA 1800.

3. SOMETIMES THE CENSUS TAKER MISSED NAMES THROUGH NEGLECT, LAZINESS, OR DRUNKENESS. EXAMPLE: BALTIMORE CO., MARYLAND 1800.

4. NAMES WERE OMITTED IF PEOPLE WERE NOT HOME AT THE TIME THE CENSUS TAKER CAME. THIS IS PARTICULARLY TRUE IN THE LARGER CITIES.

5. PEOPLE WHO LIVED IN REMOTE RURAL AREAS WERE OCCASIONALLY NOT REACHED AND RECORDED.

6. MANY CENSUS TAKERS SPOelled NAMES PHONETICALLY AND NOT AS THEY WERE SPOelled BY THE FAMILY. FOR EXAMPLE: FISHER INSTEAD OF PHISHER OR PFISHER.

7. THE CENSUS TAKER MAY NOT HAVE KNOWN HOW TO SPELL THE NAME AT ALL, AND MAY HAVE GUESSED.

8. PEOPLE SEARCHING FOR A NAME ARE SOMETIMES NOT AWARE OF ALL THE SPELLING VARIATIONS THAT A NAME MAY HAVE. FOR EXAMPLE: WYATT, WIATT, VIATT, WYETT, ETC.

9. MANY ENUMERATORS WROTE POORLY OR USED THEIR OWN STYLE OF WRITING WHICH MAY BE IMPOSSIBLE TO READ.

11. NAMES MAY HAVE BEEN OMITTED WHEN THE CENSUS WORKERS MADE COPIES FOR THE STATE AND COUNTY GOVERNMENTS.

12. IN THE CASE OF THE CENSUS INDEX, THE INDEXER MAY NOT HAVE BEEN ABLE TO READ OR PERHAPS MISREAD THE NAME DUE TO SOME OF THE ABOVE REASONS. WHEN AN ERROR IS FOUND OF THIS TYPE, THE PUBLISHERS TAKE THE NECESSARY STEPS TO CORRECT IT.

DESPITE IMPERFECTIONS, CENSUSES REMAIN AN IMPORTANT AND VALUABLE GENEALOGICAL TOOL AND THE ADVENT OF THE COMPUTER HAS GREATLY ENHANCED THEIR USEFULNESS.

INDEXES OF THE 1790, 1800, 1810, 1820, 1830, AND 1840 CENSUSES LIST ONLY THE "HEADS OF HOUSEHOLDS," THEREFORE OTHER SOURCES MUST BE CONSULTED TO DETERMINE THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE HOUSEHOLD. THE EDITORS TRUST THAT THIS INDEX WILL BE HELPFUL IN CONDUCTING HISTORICAL RESEARCH IN THIS STATE.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CENSUS ENUMERATORS

WITHIN THE FOLLOWING PAGES ARE THE INSTRUCTIONS TO THE MARSHALL IN CHARGE OF TAKING THE CENSUS ENUMERATIONS. THESE INSTRUCTIONS ARE THOSE INSTITUTED BY CONGRESSIONAL LAW FROM 1789 TO 1850 INCLUSIVE.

EVEN THOUGH THIS PARTICULAR CENSUS INDEX COVERS ONLY ONE YEAR, A KNOWLEDGE OF WHAT WAS EXPECTED OF THE CENSUS ENUMERATOR FROM 1790 TO 1850 IS MOST HELPFUL. DURING THE MANY YEARS OF SERVING THE PUBLIC, WE HAVE CONSTANTLY RECEIVED LETTERS INQUIRING AS TO THE CONTENT OF THE VARIOUS CENSUS RECORDS.

IT SHOULD BE MADE CLEAR FROM THE BEGINNING THAT THE MARSHALL IN MANY CASES DID AS HE WELL PLEASED. MANY DISREGARDED THE INSTRUCTIONS AS SET FORTH BY CONGRESS AND EITHER SHORTENED HIS RESPONSIBILITIES BY TAKING SCANTY DATA OR BY TAKING OTHER LIBERTIES. HOWEVER, A FEW CENSUS ENUMERATORS WENT BEYOND THEIR CALL OF DUTY, GATHERED AND RECORDED ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, ETC.

ONE CENSUS ENUMERATOR IN THE 1800 MARYLAND CENSUS BECAME TOO DRUNK TO TAKE THE CENSUS---THEREFORE WE ARE MISSING BALTIMORE COUNTY 1800...WHILE THE CENSUS ENUMERATOR OF 1800 KENNEBEC COUNTY, MAINE, RECORDED THE DATE THE PERSON MOVED INTO THE COUNTY.

IN THE 1850 CENSUS ENUMERATIONS, SOME ENUMERATORS RECORDED FULL NAMES WHILE OTHERS RECORDED JUST THE INITIAL OF THE FIRST NAMES ALONG WITH THE LAST NAMES.

THE FOLLOWING DATA WILL BE MOST HELPFUL TO THE TRUE RESEARCHER.

INTRODUCTION

The First Census — 1790

The first United States Federal census was taken as the result of the Constitution, Article I, section 2 which states:

Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of the years, in such manner as they shall be law direct.

With this provision the United States became the first country to have, by law, a periodic enumeration of its inhabitants. The Constitution did not provide for information beyond statistical data for each state.

Fortunately, the act which specifically called for a census enumeration went further. This act was approved 1 Mar 1790 during the second session of the First Congress.<sup>1</sup> It required that a marshal be appointed for each State, who was empowered to appoint as many assistants as necessary. By this act the Marshals were not only required to enumerate the number of inhabitants within each district but to distinguish the free population from the slave population, and to exclude Indians not taxed. This was sufficient information to meet the Constitutional requirements, but the act also required a distinction between sex, free persons of color, free males of 16 years and upward, and most importantly the names of the heads of each family.<sup>2</sup>

The task of taking the enumeration was to begin on the first Monday in August 1790 and close within nine months, at which time the marshals were to make their returns. To avoid the problems that arise from making an accurate count of a mobile population the act stated that each individual was to be enumerated in the home of "his usual place of abode"<sup>3</sup> on the first Monday in August 1790. In the case of persons having no settled place of residence the act stated that they should be listed in the division where they happened to be on the first day of August.

The act also stipulated that "each and every person more than 16 years of age, whether the head of a family or not, [was] to render a true account, to the best of his knowledge, of every person belonging to the family in which he usually resided, if so required by the assistant of his division, under penalty of forfeiting $20."<sup>4</sup>

Difficulty immediately came to the fore with the passage of this act. America was on the fringes of a vast wilderness and the great majority of the population lived in rural areas. Consequently, the assistants had to travel over long distances with few roads and bridges, in forests, swamps, etc. to make an accurate return. Often the population did not cooperate. Many people "imagined some scheme for increasing taxation, and were inclined to be cautious lest they should reveal too much of their own affairs."<sup>5</sup> There was opposition on religious grounds and it was feared that it would cause divine displeasure. Other problems were caused by the question of civil boundaries, and "even those of counties, were in many cases unknown or not defined at all."<sup>6</sup>

Each assistant was to make two additional copies of his return and post them in two public places for the inspection of the local inhabitants. He was then to forward the remaining copy to the respective marshal who was in turn to total each description of persons and send these totals (aggregate amounts) to the President.<sup>7</sup> The returns were then to be turned over to the clerks of the respective U.S. District Courts, who were directed to carefully preserve them.<sup>8</sup> It is assumed that these copies remained in the District Courts until a resolution, passed 28 May 1830, directed the District Court clerks to forward the returns to Washington.<sup>9</sup> "It is known that the 1790 schedules for Rhode Island were forwarded to Washington on June 22, 1830, as a result of the May 28 resolution. Presumably other extant population schedules, 1790-1820, were forwarded at about the same time, but no documentation of such action has been found."<sup>10</sup>

The size of sheets used to take this first census varied greatly as no forms were provided nor were instructions given concerning size, type of paper, etc. Usually the marshals and the assistants ruled columns in ink on each page and filled in the headings of each column. Apparently the only instructions the marshals were given were the following:

Schedule of the whole number of persons within the Division allotted to

Names of heads of families

Free white males of 16 and upwards including heads of families

Free white males under 16

Free white females, including heads of families

All other free persons

Slaves<sup>11</sup>

Enumerations were taken in the thirteen original states viz. : Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia.<sup>12</sup> Enumerations were also taken for Vermont which became a state in 1791; Maine which was a part of Massachusetts, Kentucky which was a part of Virginia, and the present states of Alabama and Mississippi which were parts of Georgia. There was also a census of the present state of Tennessee which was a part of North Carolina in 1790 but was organized as the Southwest Territory soon thereafter.<sup>13</sup>

The present state of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin, as well as a part of Minnesota were known as the Northwest Territory, but there seems to have been little effort to take a census there.<sup>14</sup> In the printed enumeration totals, blanks were provided for the Northwest Territory but they were not filled in.<sup>15</sup>

By the act of 1 March 1790 the marshals were to transmit the aggregate amounts to the President on or before 1 Sept 1791; later legislation extended the time allowed to the states of Vermont and South Carolina. In the case of Vermont the enumeration was to begin the first Monday in Apr 1791 and close within five calendar months.<sup>16</sup> In the case of South Carolina the time of completion was extended to 1 March 1792.<sup>17</sup> Rhode Island, by the date of the act of 1 March 1790, had not accepted the Constitution, and thus was not a part of the Union. When she did accept the Constitution, legislation had to be enacted to take a census. This act was dated 5 July 1790.<sup>18</sup>

In the congressional appropriations bill for the year 1907 we find the following paragraphs:

The Director of the Census is hereby authorized and directed to publish, in a permanent form, by counties and minor civil division, the names of the head of families returned at the First Census of the United States in seventeen hundred and ninety; and to sell said publications, the proceeds thereof to be covered into the treasury of the United States, to be deposited to the credit of miscellaneous receipts on account of proceeds of sales of Government property:

Provided, that no expense shall be incurred hereunder additional to appropriations for the census office for printing....<sup>19</sup>

Printing began with the schedule of New Hampshire and we reproduce a portion of a page from the same.

The initial appropriations apparently were not enough to cover cost for printing all of the 1790 census<sup>20</sup> but in the next few years all known schedules were printed.

Unfortunately, some of the early census schedules had been lost or destroyed and could not be found by the Census Bureau in 1907. Those missing are for the states of Delaware, Georgia, Kentucky, New Jersey, Tennessee (Southwest Territory), and Virginia. In the introductory remarks of each printed 1790 census schedule is found the statement that the originals of the missing schedules were "destroyed when the British burned the Capitol at Washington during the War of 1812."<sup>21</sup> This is quite unlikely because the schedules most likely remained in the hands of the U.S. District Courts until the resolution of 28 March 1830.

For the states for which schedules are missing the government attempted to fill in with substitutes from state and county tax lists. This was done for the state of Virginia with some defects. The introduction of the 1908 publication entitled Heads of Families at the first census-1790-Virginia states:

The loss of Virginia's original schedules for the First and Second censuses is so unfortunate that every endeavor has been made to secure data that would in some measure fill in the vacancy. The only records that could be secured were some manuscript lists of state enumerations made in the years 1782, 1783, 1784, and 1785; also the tax lists of Greenbrier county from 1783 to 1786. These documents were on file in the State Library and could not be removed therefrom. Through the courtesy of the State Librarian and the members of the Library Board, an act was passed by the legislature allowing the Census Office to withdraw the lists for the purpose of making copies and publishing the names, in lieu of the Federal census returns. The counties for which the names of the heads of families are returned on the state census lists are 39 in number, and contain in 1790 a population of 370,000; 41 counties with 377,000 population are lacking; this publication covers therefore, only about one-half of the state.<sup>22</sup>

This Virginia tax lists publication was the only one undertaken by the Census Bureau. There have been publications that have also attempted to complete this project of supplying substitutes to the 1790 census through indexes to tax lists. These are probably not as complete as the censuses but are nonetheless helpful. For the missing portion of the state of Virginia there is Virginia Tax Payers 1782-1784 by Augusta B. Fothergill and John Mark Naugle; For Kentucky there is First Census of Kentucky 1790 compiled by Charles B. Heinemann. For Delaware a tax list of 1790 was compiled by Leon De Valinger and published in the "National Genealogical Society Quarterly" beginning in 1948, Vol 36 p. 95 and subsequent volumes. For Tennessee we have only a few good tax list available but those that are available are printed in Mary Barnett Curtis' Early East Tennessee Tax Lists and Petitions which covers the years 1778 through 1823 and in Pollyanna Creekmore's Early East Tennessee Tax Payers. The tax lists for Georgia are also very incomplete but some of those available are published in Early Tax Digests of Georgia by Ruth Blair. Only the state of New Jersey has no tax substitutes for the 1790 time period, but there is a military "census" which may be helpful. It is indexed in Revolutionary Census of New Jersey 1773-1784, by Kenn Stryker-Rodda.

As a final note, recently, a spanish census for 1790 for the New Mexico area has been found. The originals are located in the New Mexico State Record Center Historical Service Division in Santa Fe, and are published in Spanish and Mexican Colonial Censuses of New Mexico: 1790, 1823, 1845, translated and compiled by Virginia L. Olmsted. This find leads us to wonder if there are not censuses for the other Spanish Possessions in North America such as Louisiana, California, and Texas. If they do exist it is suspected that they will be found in the Church records of the various parishes.

Later Censuses — 1800-1840

Most of the legislation that brought about the taking of the later censuses was based upon the act of 1 Mar 1790. There was a gradual expansion of information required with each succeeding census. By 1810 there was an attempt to take a manufacturing census which was expanded in 1810. Included as a part of this introduction are the various acts and instructions to the marshals of the appropriate census year.

every fifty persons by them returned. # INSTRUCTIONS TO MARSHALS — CENSUS OF 1820.

To the Marshal of the District of ———

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Washington, June 20, 1820.

SIR: The "Act to provide for taking the fourth census or enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States, and for other purposes," copies of which are herewith inclosed, prescribes that this enumeration shall be taken, under the direction of the Secretary of State, and according to such instructions as he shall give, pursuant to the act: In obedience to the injunctions of which the following regulations and instructions are now transmitted to you, together with the forms of the schedule to be returned, and such others as may be necessary in carrying the act into execution, and proper interrogatories to be administered by the several persons to be employed in taking the enumeration.

The purposes of the legislature in this act, subsidiary to that of obtaining the aggregate amount of the population of the United States, are, to ascertain in detail the proportional numbers of which it is composed, according to the circumstances of sex, color, age, condition of life, as heads or members of families, as free or slaves, as citizens or foreigners, and particularly of the classes (including slaves) engaged in agriculture, commerce, and manufactures. And, also, to obtain an account of the manufacturing establishments, and their manufactures, throughout the United States.

The means provided by the legislature, in the act, for the attainment of these purposes, consist in the appointment of the marshals of the several districts, and of such assistants as they may select, for the accomplishment of the returns within the period prescribed by the law.

The importance of the duties assigned to these officers by the act, in the estimation of the legislature, is sufficiently indicated by the provisions, that every marshal and every assistant shall, before he enters on the duties required by the act, take an oath or affirmation for the faithful performance of them. And that after this performance, every assistant shall take a second oath, or affirmation, that he has faithfully performed these duties in the manner prescribed by the act. Blank forms of these oaths, numbered 2, 3, and 4, are herewith transmitted to you, in numbers sufficient to supply yourself and your assistants; and, for the sake of uniformity, the form of a certificate, to be subscribed by the magistrate who may administer the oath, is subjoined to it. For the security of the public, it is necessary that the evidence showing that these oaths have been taken, should be preserved. It is therefore recommended, that you should transmit to this department one copy of the certificate that you have, yourself, taken the oath required of the marshal; that you should require of all your assistants to deliver or transmit to you the certificates of their oaths, taken both before and after their returns, and that you should return them to this department, as they will be vouchers necessary for the settlement of your account.

It has already been suggested to you, and could not have escaped your observation upon perusal of the act, that much will depend for its execution in a manner which may correspond with the just expectations of the legislature, upon the judicious selection of your assistants. The duties to be performed by them, under the solemnities of an oath, both before and after their discharge, are such as will require assiduous industry, active intelligence, pure integrity, great facility and accuracy of computation; with an intimate knowledge of the division allotted to them respectively, and a faculty of discernment between the different classes of persons discriminated by the act, which will enable them readily to distinguish to which of the enumerated conditions of society each individual may, with the greatest propriety, be assigned. They must, by the letter of the act, be residents of the county or city for which they shall be appointed, and each division, though it may include one or more towns, townships, wards, hundreds, or parishes, plainly and distinctly bounded by water courses, mountains, public roads, or other monuments, must not consist of more than one county or city. The subdivisions of territory are known in different States by different denominations, and the same term of town, county, city, and parish, has a different idea annexed to it in the different parts of the Union. Hence it is that the act points to divisions bounded by water courses, mountains, public roads, or other monuments, to which you will duly attend, with reference to the particular territorial denominations known in your State, and with suitable precautions to avoid the assignment of the same portion of the population to more than one assistant, and the inconvenience that any two of them should interfere with each other.

A form of schedule (No. 1), such as is prescribed by the act, is likewise inclosed. Your assistants will observe that the act expressly requires the enumeration to be made by an actual inquiry, at every dwelling house, or of the head of every family, and not otherwise, and that the oath or affirmation, to be taken by them, after their performance of the duty, and before they can receive compensation for the same, declares, expressly, that they have ascertained the numbers, by such actual inquiry.

The act requires that the enumeration should commence on the first Monday of August next, and should close within six calendar months thereafter. From the number and extent of the inquiries to be made at every house, embracing many particulars, not required at any former census of the United States, it is obvious that the progress to be made by each assistant will be necessarily slow; and as it is extremely desirable that the enumeration should be completed within the time prescribed, you will perceive the necessity of appointing a number of assistants adequate to that result, as each assistant will be duly impressed with that of not losing a day in the performance of his task. And, I beg leave to suggest, as advisable, proper precautions, to meet the contingency that any of your assistants should be disabled by illness, or otherwise, from accomplishing his duties, and to supply immediately the places of such as may be vacated by death, or other casualty.

The interrogatories to be put at each dwelling house, or to the head of every family, are definitely marked in relation to the various classes of inhabitants discriminated in the several columns of the schedule, by the titles at the head of each column. That of the name of the head of each family, must indeed be varied according to its circumstances, as it may be that of a master, mistress, steward, overseer, or other principal person therein. The subsequent inquiries, How many free white males under 10 years there are in the family? How many of 10 and under 16? etc., will follow in the order of the columns. But, to facilitate the labor of your assistants, a printed list of all the interrogatories for enumeration, believed to be necessary, is inclosed; (No. 5) in which all the questions refer to the day when the enumeration is to commence, the first Monday in August next. Your assistants will thereby understand that they are to insert in their returns all the persons belonging to the family on the first Monday in August, even those who may be deceased at the time when they take the account; and, on the other hand, that they will not the legislature, as manifested by the clause providing that every person shall be recorded as of the family in which he or she shall reside on the first Monday in August.

It will be necessary to remember, that the numbers in the columns of free white males between 16 and 18 — foreigners not naturalized — persons engaged in agriculture — persons engaged in commerce — persons engaged in manufactures — must not be added to the general aggregates, of which the sum total is to be composed. All the persons included within these columns must necessarily be included also in one of the other columns. Those, for instance, between 16 and 18, will all be repeated in the column of those between 16 and 26. The foreigners not naturalized, and those engaged in the three principal walks of life, will also be included in the columns embracing their respective ages. In the printed form of a schedule herewith inclosed, the description at the top of these columns is printed in italics, and the division lines between the columns themselves are double ruled, with a view to distinguish them from the other columns, the sums of which are to go to the general aggregate. In preparing their schedules from this form, your assistants will find it useful, for convenience and accuracy, to distinguish those columns, by ruling them with red ink, or in some other manner, which may keep them separate from the others, by a sensible impression constantly operating upon the mind.

The discrimination between persons engaged in agriculture, commerce, and manufactures, will not be without its difficulties.

2. As soon as the marshal has received the returns of all his assistants, he is to make out an abstract of their compensation in the form annexed (No. 10), adding at foot the amount of his own compensation, as fixed by the act of 14th of March, 1820.

3. If any of the assistants are allowed more than at the rate of $1 for every hundred persons enumerated, there must be annexed to the abstract the certificate of the district or territorial judge, approving such additional allowance.

4. The account of compensation is to be transmitted to this Department, at the same time with the returns of the census.

The column of compensation for taking account of manufactures must be left in blank; and the allowance will be a percentage, not exceeding 20 per cent on the amount allowed for the other services required by the act. This apportionment being subject to the direction of the Secretary of State, you will state in the column the amount of your claim for it; and if extending to, or approaching, the whole allowance within the limits of the act, you will assign the reasons upon which it may be allowed, by a justifiable exercise of the discretion authorized by the law.

Should any difficulty or obstacle occur to any of your assistants, in performing the duty assigned to him, it is expected that he will give you immediate notice of it, that you may take measures for removing it, if within your power. Should any such occur to yourself, for which it may be within the competency of this Department to provide a remedy, you are requested to give immediate communication of it, to me.

A number, believed to be competent, of copies of the act, of these instructions, and of the forms referred to in them, numbered as noted, is herewith furnished for the supply of yourself and your assistants, to whom they are supposed to be necessary. Should more be required, you will receive them, on giving notice of it by letter to this Department. You are requested, as soon as convenient, after the receipt of this letter, to acknowledge it.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, sir, your humble and obedient servant.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

EXPLANATION OF SCHEDULE NO. 1. — FREE INHABITANTS.

This schedule is to be filled up in the following manner:

Insert in the heading the name or number of the district, town, or city of the county or parish, and of the state, and the day of the month upon which the enumeration was taken. This is to be attested on each page of each set, by the signature of the assistant.

The several columns are to be filled as follows:

1. Under heading 1, entitled "Dwelling houses numbered in the order of visitation," insert the number of dwelling houses occupied by free inhabitants, as they are visited. The first house visited to be numbered 1; the second one visited, 2; the third one visited, 3; and so on to the last house visited in the subdivision. By a dwelling house is meant a separate inhabited tenement, containing one or more families under one roof. Where several tenements are in one block, with walls either of brick or wood to divide them, having separate entrances, they are each to be numbered as separate houses, but where not so divided, they are to be numbered as one house.

If a house is used partly for a store, shop, or for other purposes, and partly for a dwelling house, it is to be numbered as a dwelling house. Hotels, poorhouses, garrisons, hospitals, asylums, jails, penitentiaries, and other similar institutions, are each to be numbered as a dwelling house; where the house is of a public nature, as above, write perpendicularly under the number, in said column, the name or description, as "hotel," "poorhouse," etc.

2. Under heading 2, entitled "Families numbered in the order of visitation," insert the number of the families of free persons, as they are visited. The first family visited by the assistant marshal is to be numbered 1; the second one visited, 2; and so on to the last one visited in his district.

By the term family is meant, either one person living separately in a house, or a part of a house, and providing for him or herself, or several persons living together in a house, or in part of a house, upon one common means of support, and separately from others in similar circumstances. A widow living alone and separately providing for herself, or 200 individuals living together and provided for by a common head, should each be numbered as one family.

The resident inmates of a hotel, jail, garrison, hospital, an asylum, or other similar institution, should be reckoned as one family.

3. Under heading 3, entitled "The name of every person whose usual place of abode on the 1st day of June, 1850, was in this family," insert the name of every free person in each family, of every age, including the names of those temporarily absent, as well as those that were at home on that day. The name of any member of a family who may have died since the 1st day of June is to be entered and described as if living, but the name of any person born since the 1st day of June is to be omitted. The names are to be written, beginning with the father and mother; or if either, or both, be dead, begin with some other ostensible head of the family; to be followed, as far as practicable, with the name of the oldest child residing at home, then the next oldest, and so on the youngest, then the other inmates, lodgers and boarders, laborers, domestics, and servants.

All landlords, jailors, superintendents of poorhouses, garrisons, hospitals, asylums, and other similar institutions, are to be considered as heads of their respective families, and the inmates under their care to be registered as members thereof, and the details concerning each designated in their proper columns.

Indians not taxed are not to be enumerated in this or any other schedule.

By place of abode is meant the house or usual lodging place of a person. Anyone who is temporarily absent on a journey, or for other purposes, without taking up his place of residence elsewhere, and with the intention of returning again, is to be considered a member of the family which the assistant marshal is enumerating.

Students in colleges, academies, or schools, when absent from the families to which they belong, are to be enumerated only as members of the family in which they usually boarded and lodged on the 1st day of June.

Assistant marshals are directed to make inquiry at all stores, shops, eating houses, and other similar places, and take the name and description of every person who usually slept there, provided such person is not otherwise enumerated.

Inquiries are to be made at every dwelling house, or of the head of every family. Those only who belong to such family, and consider it their home or usual place of abode, whether present or temporarily absent on a visit, journey, or a voyage, are to be enumerated. Persons on board of vessels accidentally temporarily absent from their homes, whose only habitation was the vessel to which they belong, those who are temporarily boarding for a few days at a sailors' boarding or lodging house, if they belong to other places are not to be enumerated as the population of a place.

The sailors and hands of a revenue cutter which belongs to a particular port should be enumerated as of such port. A similar rule will apply to those employed in the navigation of the lakes, rivers, and canals. All are to be taken at their homes or usual places of abode, whether present or absent; and if any live on board of vessels or boats who are not so enumerated, they are to be taken as of the place where the vessel or boat is owned, licensed, or registered. And the assistant marshals are to make inquiry at every vessel and boat employed in the internal navigation of the United States, and enumerated those who are not taken as belonging to a family on shore; and all persons of such description in any one vessel are to be considered as belonging to one family and the vessel their place of abode. The assistants in all seaports will apply at the proper office for lists of all persons on a voyage at sea and register all citizens of the United States who have not been registered as belonging to some family.

Errors necessarily occurred in the last census in enumerating those employed in navigation, because no uniform rule was adopted for the whole United States. Assistant marshals are required to be particular in following the above directions, that similar errors may now be avoided.

4. Under heading 4, entitled "Age," insert in figures what was the specific age of each person at his or her last birthday previous to the 1st of June, opposite the name of such person. If the exact age in years can not be ascertained, insert a number which shall be the nearest approximation to it.

The age, either exact or estimated, or everyone, is to be inserted.

If the person be a child under 1 year old, the entry is to be made by the fractional parts of a year, thus: One month, one-twelfth; two months, two-twelfths; three months, three-twelfths, and so on to eleven months, eleven-twelfths.

5. Under heading 5, entitled "Sex," insert the letter M for male, and F for female, opposite the name, in all cases, as the fact may be.

6. Under heading 6, entitled "Color," in all cases where the person is white, leave the space blank; in all cases where the person is black, insert the letter B; if mulatto, insert M. It is very desirable that these particulars be carefully regarded.

7. Under heading 7, entitled "Profession, occupation, or trade of each person over 15 years of age," insert opposite the name of each male the specific profession, occupation, or trade which the said person is known and reputed to follow in the place where he resides—as clergyman, physician, lawyer, shoemaker, student, farmer, carpenter, laborer, tailor, boatman, sailor, or otherwise, as the fact may be. When more convenient, the name of the article he produces may be substituted.

When the individual is a clergyman, insert the initials of the denomination to which he belongs before his profession—as Meth. for Methodist, R. C. for Roman Catholic, O. S. P. for Old School Presbyterian, or other appropriate initials, as the fact may be. When a person follows several professions or occupations the name of the principal one only is to be given. If a person follows no particular occupation, the space is to be filled with the word "none."

8. Under heading 8 insert the value of real estate owned by each individual enumerated. You are to obtain the value of real estate by inquiry of each individual who is supposed to own real estate, be the same located where it may, and insert the amount in dollars. No abatement of the value is to be made on account of any lien or incumbrance thereon in the nature of debt.

9. Under heading 9, "Place of birth." The marshal should ask the place of birth of each person in the family. If born in the State or Territory where they reside, insert the name or initials of the State or Territory, or the name of the government or country if without the United States. The names of the several States may be abbreviated.

Where the place of birth is unknown, state "unknown."

10. Under No. 10 make a mark, or dash, opposite the name of each person married during the year previous to the 1st of June, whether male or female.

11. Under heading 11, entitled "At school within the last year," The marshal should ask what member of this family has been at school within the last year; he is to insert a mark, thus, (1), opposite the names of all those, whether male or female, who have been at educational institutions within that period. Sunday schools are not to be included.

12. Under heading 12, entitled "Persons over 20 years of age who can not read and write." The marshal should be careful to note all persons in each family, over 20 years of age, who can not read and write, and opposite the name of each make a mark, thus, (1). The spaces opposite the names of those who can read and write are to be left blank. If the person can read and write a foreign language, he is to be considered as able to read and write.

13. Heading 13, entitled "Deaf and dumb, blind, insane, idiotic, pauper, or convict." The assistant marshal should ascertain if there be any person in the family deaf, dumb, idiotic, blind, insane, or pauper. If so, who? And insert the term "deaf and dumb," "blind," "insane," and "idiotic," opposite the name of such persons, as the fact may be. When persons who had been convicted of crime within the year reside in prison on the 1st of June, the fact should be stated, as in the other cases of criminals; but, as the interrogatory might give offense, the assistants had better refer to the county record for information on this head, and not make the inquiry of any family. With the county record and his own knowledge he can seldom err.

Should a poorhouse, asylum for the blind, insane or idiotic, or other charitable institution, or a penitentiary, a jail, house of refuge, or other place of punishment, be visited by the assistant marshal, he must number such building in its regular order, and he must write after the number, and perpendicularly in the same column (No. 1) the nature of such institution—that it is a penitentiary, jail, house of refuge, as the case may be; and in column 13, opposite the name of each person, he must state the character of the infirmity or misfortune, in the one case, and in the other he must state the crime for which each inmate is confined, and of which such person was convicted; and in column No. 3, with the name, give the year of conviction, and fill all the columns concerning age, sex, color, etc., with as much care as in the case of other individuals.

EXPLANATION OF SCHEDULE 2—SLAVE INHABITANTS.

This schedule is to be filled up in the following manner:

Insert in the heading the number or name of the district, town, city, and the county or parish, and of the state in which the slave inhabitants enumerated reside, and the day of the month upon which the enumeration was taken. This is to be attested on each page of each set, by the signature of the assistant marshal. The several columns are to be filled up as follows:

1. Under heading 1, entitled "Name of slaveholders," insert, in proper order, the names of the owners of slaves. Where there are several owners to a slave, the name of the one only need be entered, or when owned by a corporation or trust estate, the name of the trustee or corporation.
2. Under heading 2, entitled "Number of slaves," insert, in regular numerical order, the number of all the slaves of both sexes and of each age, belonging to such owners. In the case of slaves, numbers are to be substituted for names. The number of every slave who usually resides in the district enumerated is to be entered, although he may happen to be temporarily absent. The slaves of each owner are to be numbered separately, beginning at No. 1, and a separate description of each is to be given. The person in whose family, or on whose plantation, the slave is found to be employed, is to be considered the owner—the principal object being to get the number of slaves, and not that of masters or owners.

3. Under heading 3, entitled "Age," insert, in figures, the specific age of each slave opposite the number of such slave. If the exact age can not be ascertained, insert a number which shall be the nearest approximation to it. The age of every slave, either exact or estimated, is to be inserted. If the slave be a child which, on the 1st of June, was under 1 year old, the entry is to be made by fractional parts of a year; thus, one month old, one-twelfth; two months, two-twelfths, three months, three-twelfths; eleven months, eleven-twelfths; keeping ever in view, in all cases, that the age must be estimated at no later period than the 1st of June.

4. Under heading 4, entitled "Sex" insert the letter M for male, and F for female, opposite the number, in all cases, as the fact may be.

5. Under heading 5, entitled "Color," insert, in all cases, when the slave is black, the letter B; when he or she is a mulatto, insert M. The color of all slaves should be noted.

6. Under heading 6 insert, in figures, opposite the name of the slave owner, the number of slaves who, having absconded within the year, have not been recovered.

7. In column 7, insert opposite the name of the former owner thereof, the number of slaves manumitted within the year. The name of the person is to be given, although at the time of the enumeration such person may not have held slaves on the 1st of June. In such case, no entry is to be made in column No. 2.

8. Under heading 8k entitled "Deaf and dumb, blind, insane, or idiotic," the assistant should ascertain if any of these slaves be deaf and dumb, blind, insane, or idiotic; and if so, insert opposite the name or number of such slave, the term deaf and dumb, blind, insane, or idiotic, as the fact may be. If slaves be found imprisoned convicts, mention the crime in column 8, and the date of conviction before the number in the vacant space below the name of the owner. The convict slaves should be numbered with the other slaves of their proper owner.

CHAP. XL — An Act to provide for taking the fifth census or enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the marshals of the several districts of the United States, and of the District of Columbia, and of the territories of Michigan, Arkansas, and of Florida, respectively, shall be, and are hereby, required, under the direction of the Secretary of the Department of State, and according to such instructions as he shall give, pursuant to this act, to cause the number of the inhabitants within their respective districts and territories, (omitting, in such enumeration, Indians not taxed,) to be taken according to the directions of this act. The said enumeration shall distinguish the sexes of all free white persons, and ages of the free white males and females, respectively, under five years of age; those of five and under ten years of age; those of ten years and under fifteen; those of fifteen and under twenty; those of twenty and under thirty; those thirty and under forty; those of forty and under fifty; those of fifty and under sixty; those of sixty and under seventy; those of seventy and under eighty; those of eighty and under ninety; those of ninety and under one hundred; those of one hundred and upwards; and shall further distinguish the number of those free white persons included in such enumeration, who are deaf and dumb, under the age of fourteen years; and those of the age of fourteen years and under twenty-five, and of the age of twenty-five years and upwards; and shall further distinguish the number of those free white persons included in such enumeration, who are blind. The said enumeration shall distinguish the sexes of all free coloured persons, and of all other coloured persons bound to service for life, or for a term of years, and the ages of such free and other coloured persons, respectively, of each sex, under ten years of age; those of ten and under twenty-four; those of twenty-four and under thirty-six; those of thirty-six and under fifty-five; those of fifty-five and under one hundred; and those of one hundred and upwards; and shall further distinguish the number of those free coloured and other coloured persons, included in the foregoing, who are deaf and dumb, without regard to age, and those who are blind. For effecting which, the marshals aforesaid shall have power, and are hereby required, to appoint one or more assistants in each city and county in their respective districts and territories, residents of such city or county for which they shall be appointed, and shall assign to each of the said assistants a certain division of territory, which division shall not consist, in any case, of more than one county, but may include one or more towns, townships, wards, hundreds, precincts, or parishes, and shall be plainly and distinctly bounded; the said enumeration shall be made by an actual inquiry by such marshals or assistants, at every dwelling-house, or by personal inquiry of the head of every family. The marshals and their assistants shall respectively, before entering on the performance of their duty under this act, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, before some judge or justice of the peace, resident within their respective districts or territories, for the faithful performance of their duties. The oath or affirmation of the marshal shall be as follows: "I, A. B., marshal of the district (or territory) of _____, do solemnly swear, (or affirm,) that I will truly and faithfully cause to be made a full and perfect enumeration and description of all persons resident within my district, (or territory,) and return the same to the Secretary of State, agreeably to the directions of an act of Congress, entitled 'An act to provide for taking the fifth census, or enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States,' according to the best of my ability." The oath or affirmation of an assistant shall be as follows: "I, A. B., appointed an assistant to the marshal of the district (or territory) of _____, do solemnly swear, (or affirm,) that I will make a just, faithful, and perfect enumeration and description of all persons, resident within the division assigned to me for that purpose, by the marshal of the district, (or territory,) of _____, and make due return thereof to the said marshal, agreeably to the directions of an act of Congress, entitled 'An act to provide for the taking the fifth census or enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States,' according to the best of my ability, and that I will take the said enumeration and description, by actual inquiry at every dwelling-house within said division, or personal inquiry at every dwelling-house within said division, or personal inquiry of the head of every family, and not otherwise." The enumeration shall commence on the first day in June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and shall be completed and closed within six calendar months thereafter; the several assistants shall, within the said six months, and on or before the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, deliver to the marshals, by whom they shall be appointed, respectively, two copies of the accurate returns of all persons, except Indians not taxed, to be enumerated, as aforesaid, within their respective divisions; which returns shall be made in a schedule, the form of which is annexed to this act, and which shall distinguish, in each county, city, town, township, ward, precinct, hundred, district, or parish, according to the civil divisions of the states or territories, respectively, the several families, by the name of their master, mistress, steward, overseer, or other principal persons therein.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That every assistant failing or neglecting to make a proper return, or making a false return, of the enumeration, to the marshal, within the time limited by this act, shall forfeit the sum of two hundred dollars, recoverable in the manner pointed out in the next section of this act.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the marshal shall file one copy of each of the several returns aforesaid, and, also, an attested copy of the aggregate amount hereinafter directed, to be transmitted by them respectively, to the Secretary of State, with the clerks of their respective district or superior courts, as the case may be, who are hereby directed to receive, and carefully to preserve, the same; and the marshals, respectively, shall, on or before the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, transmit to the Secretary of State, one copy of the several returns received from each assistant, and, also, the aggregate amount of each description of persons within their respective districts or territories; and every marshal failing to file the returns of his assistants, or the returns of any of them, with the clerks of the respective courts, as aforesaid, or failing to return one copy of the several returns received from each assistant, and, also, the aggregate amount of each description of persons, in their respective districts or territories, as required by this act, and as the same shall appear from said returns, to the Secretary of State, within the time limited by this act, shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of one thousand dollars; which forfeiture shall be recoverable in the courts of the districts or territories where the offences shall be committed, or within the circuit courts held within the same, by action of debt, information, or indictment; the one half thereof to the use of the United States, and the other half to the informer; but, where the prosecution shall be first instituted on behalf of the United States, the whole shall accrue to their use, and, for the more effectual discovery of such offences, the judges of the several district courts, in the several districts, and of the Supreme Courts in the territories of the United States, as aforesaid, at their next session, to be held after the expiration of the time allowed for making the returns of the enumeration, hereby directed, to the Secretary of State, shall give this act in charge to the grand juries, in their respective courts, and shall cause the returns of the several assistants, and the said attested copy of the aggregate amount, to be laid before them for their inspection. And the respective clerks of the said courts shall, within thirty days after the said original returns shall have been laid before the grand juries aforesaid, transmit and deliver all such original returns, so filed, to the Department of State.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That every assistant shall receive at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents for every hundred persons by him returned, where such persons reside in the country; and, where such persons reside in a city or town, containing more than three thousand persons, such assistant shall receive at the same rate for three thousand, and at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents for every three hundred persons over three thousand, residing in such city or town, but where, from the dispersed situation of the inhabitants, in some divisions, one dollar and twenty-five cents will not be sufficient for one hundred persons, the marshals, with the approbation of the judges of their respective districts or territories, may make such further allowance to the assistants, in such divisions, as shall be deemed an adequate compensation; Provided, the same does not exceed one dollar and seventy-five cents for every fifty persons by them returned: Provided, further, That, before any assistant as aforesaid, shall in any case, be entitled to receive said compensation, he shall take and subscribe the following

If more than three copies of any schedule be required in a subdivision, six will be needed, as there must be three copies of every variety of statistics taken. You should use much care in the distribution of the blanks, in order that the supply be not unnecessarily exhausted.

Having furnished your assistants with the blanks and instructions, you will direct them to inform you when they commence the enumeration of the district assigned, and at least once in every two weeks, where mail facilities exist, they should be required to inform you of the progress made in the work. Failing to get such information from any assistant, it will be your duty to make inquiries concerning the district, so as to be assured that the assistant is at work, and to take those efficient steps which the law provides, to remedy any evil or intention which may exist. You have, at any time, for cause sufficient, the power to cancel the appointment of an assistant, and to appoint another for the district, and it is your duty to do so whenever the public interest suffers from the neglect or incompetency of any assistant.

2. By the seventh section of the above act, it is made your duty "to keep an accurate record of the name, and area in square miles, of each subdivision, and of each assistant within your district." The object of this proviso is to determine that rate of payment to be made to the assistants. It is supposed and believed that in all States the areas of the different subdivisions may be pretty accurately known. It should be ascertained with complete exactness when the means exist for doing so. Where the reputed or estimated area is upon data not entirely reliable, this fact should be stated.

In the new States, where the county and town divisions are made by apportioned lines, little difficulty can occur, and in the older States the gazetteers usually contain the required information. But, as they can not always be relied on, and Counties have undergone change of character the information should be obtained from the county surveyor, or clerk, or other reliable source, and you should require each assistant to furnish you with a certificate, under the hand of some reliable person, of the number of square miles in his district.

You should consider this as one of your first duties, so that, if possible, it may be made known to the assistant, soon after his appointment, the area of his district, and thus prevent the occurrence of any subsequent dispute. You should arrange a book, in some convenient method, by which you can easily refer to the description of the district, the number of square miles therein, and the name of each assistant, and the state of the work in each subdivision.

Postmasters should be notified concerning the provision in the seventeenth section of the act, which authorizes you and your assistants to frank all census packages and letters.

3. By the fifth section it is also made your duty "carefully to examine the returns of each assistant, to see whether the work has been executed in a lawful manner."

You should carefully examine the returns, to see that every part of the district embraced has been visited, and all the required information obtained, and the schedules filled up according to the instructions.

4. By the fifth section it is provided, that you shall transmit, forthwith, "one set of the returns to the census office." This set should be transmitted without any delay, and in convenient sized packages. You should keep an accurate account of returns forwarded to the census office, and of the date at which they were mailed; and if the receipt of them is not acknowledged in due course of mail, you should write and inquire whether they have been received. You are required, by the same section, to transmit the other copy thereof to the office of the secretary of State, or Territory, to which your district belongs.

5. You and your assistants are requested to obtain, if practicable, and forward to the census office, copies of local printed reports of towns, counties, and States, relating to the expenditures, to schools, pauperism, crime, insanity, and other local matters which are required to be investigated by the schedules.

6. You should instruct your assistants, upon the receipt of the instructions and blanks, to commence immediately to discharge their duty, and use all exertions to have them performed during the earlier portion of the time allotted for the work, and not procrastinate, in the expectation of being able to prosecute the work during the latter portion of the period.

7. When such procrastination occurs, or other causes (which might by timely caution be avoided) operate to defeat the consummation of the duty, neither you nor your assistants will be entitled to compensation, but render yourselves liable to a penalty.

To the Assistant Marshals:

1. The assistant marshal, having been duly commissioned, will be provided with a portfolio, to be furnished with the schedules, of sufficient size to contain several sheets of the same without folding, that may be easily opened, and used for writing on, if necessary; and he should furnish himself with ink, blotting paper, and pens. Strings should be attached to the portfolio, to prevent the loss of any of its contents.

2. He is to approach every family and individual from whom he solicits information with civil and conciliatory manners, and adapt himself, as far as practicable, to the circumstances of each, to secure confidence and good will, as a means of obtaining the desired information with accuracy and despatch.

3. If any person, to whom application is made for information should refuse to give it, or should designedly give false information, the assistant should inform him of the responsibility he thereby incurs, and that he renders himself liable to a penalty, according to the fifteenth section of the act of Congress.

4. The act provides that "the assistant marshals shall make the enumeration by actual inquiry at every dwelling house, or by personal inquiry of the head of every family, and not otherwise." This requirement must be strictly observed.

5. As soon as the schedules are filled up, and the information in relation to each family is obtained according to the instructions, the assistant should read over, and exhibit to the parties from whom he received the same, the record of the information obtained, and correct or supply any error or omission. The object of this rule is to prevent mistakes, and secure accuracy.

6. Each assistant is to complete the enumeration with as little delay as possible, after commencing it, and should inform the marshal, at least once in two weeks, of the progress he is making in his district.

7. On each page of the population and agricultural schedules is to be inserted the date when such page was commenced, although it may not have been completely filled up until the following day. When the whole enumeration in his district shall have been completed, two complete copies of all the pages are to be made. These are to be carefully read over, and each compared to see that it is correct and agrees with the original.

8. Each assistant is to sign his name on each page of the schedule, and certify, and make oath or affirmation, at the end of each set of returns, that they were made according to his oath and instructions, to the best of his knowledge and belief. Two of the sets are to be forwarded to the marshal of his district, and one filed with the clerk of the court for preservation with the county records. In proof of the filing of which he must procure, and forward to his marshal, the certificate of the clerk of the county.

Discretion as to what schedules will be needed by each assistant is lodged with the marshal, and is at all times to be used. In the free States schedule No. 2 will be omitted.

For the guidance of assistants, each will be furnished with a set of schedules filled up in the manner contemplated by the act of Congress and these instructions.

CIRCULAR TO MARSHALS, ETC.—CENSUS OF 1850.

To the United States Marshals and Assistants:

Information has been received at this office that in some cases unnecessary exposure has been made by the assistant marshals with reference to the business and pursuits, and other facts relating to individuals, merely to gratify curiosity, or the facts applied to the private use or pecuniary advantage of the assistant, to the injury of others. Such a use of the returns was neither contemplated by the act itself nor justified by the intentions and designs of those who enacted the law. No individual employed under sanction of the Government to obtain these facts has a right to promulgate or expose them without authority.

Although designedly for the use of the people at large, the Department reserves to itself the privilege of examining into the correctness of the returns, and arranging them in proper form for publication by Congress before any other use shall be made thereof, and all marshals and assistants are expected to consider the facts entrusted to them as it obtained exclusively for the use of the Government, and not to be used in any way to the gratification of curiosity, the exposure of an man's business or pursuits, or for the private emolument of the marshal or assistants, who, while employed in this service, act as the agents of the Government in the most confidential capacity. When your original copies are filed with the clerks of the courts and secretary of your state, they will be under the control of those officers and subject to the usual regulations of the respective offices, and you can enjoy the same access to them which can be had by every citizen. #### INSTRUCTIONS TO MARSHALS AND ASSISTANT MARSHALS—CENSUS OF 1850.

To the Marshals:

Having appointed your assistants, and received a duplicate of the oath of office taken by each, pursuant to your instructions from this Department, of the 25th ultimo, you will proceed immediately to the further execution of your duty, as defined by the act. It is an important service, looked to in its results with much interest, and it is expected that you will use every effort to discharge it with promptness, efficiency, and exactness.

You will be immediately furnished, by express, with a portfolio for each of your assistants, and a sufficient number of blanks for each to commence work. The necessary additional blanks will be, in like manner, furnished you as soon as practicable.

As 160 names may be entered on one sheet of population returns, and as three copies altogether are required, it follows that, for 160 names, 3 sheets of schedule No. 1 will be needed; and that for a district of 20,000 free inhabitants, 375 sheets would be required. To the number, however, which is required, on an accurate calculation, an addition of 25 per cent should be made to cover possible errors, losses, etc.; so that for a population of 20,000 in any one district, there should be sent 470 sheets of population blanks, or schedule No. 1.

You will, accordingly, estimate the number of free persons in each assistant's district, and calculate thereon the number of this schedule (No. 1) which will be required; and you will apportion the other schedules according to the character of the district, whether it be agricultural, planting, mining, manufacturing, or mercantile. The portfolios and schedules are to be transmitted by your to your assistants by mail, pursuant to the seventeenth section of the act, unless a more eligible mode can be resorted to, without expense.

No. 2. Of schedule No. 2, Slave Inhabitants, the same number will be required for a slave population of 20,000 that would be required for the same number of free persons, as each sheet will include the same number of slaves that schedule No. 1 will of free population.

No. 3. No less than four copies of schedule No. 3 should be sent to each assistant, the fourth copy being sent to provide for loss or accident; and cases will not vary frequently occur, except in populous districts, where more than that number will be necessary.

No. 4. Of the Agricultural schedule, you can be the only judge of what number will be requisite for a particular subdivision. Four sheets of schedule No. 4 should be sent for every eighty farm or plantation owners or occupiers.

No. 5. Of schedule No. 5, Statistics of Industry, there should be sent to the assistants about four sheets for each thirty manufacturers in his district; or forty, provided the manufactures are generally on a small scale. The statistics relating to four blacksmiths would not require more room than those relating to one woolen or cotton factory.

No. 6. Of schedule No. 6, Social Statistics, it is presumed that four sheets will be sufficient for most assistants, except in cities; and even there, unless the social statistics for a whole city should be taken by one individual.

SIR: The "act to provide for taking the sixth census or enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States," copies of which have been transmitted to you, prescribes that this census shall be taken under the direction of the Secretary of State, and according to such instructions as he shall give pursuant to the act. The following instructions are now, therefore, transmitted to you, and your careful attention to them required. To attain the objects in view, the legislature has directed the employment of the marshals of the several districts, and of such assistants as they may select, for the completion of the returns within the period prescribed by law.

The importance of the duties assigned to these officers is sufficiently indicated by the provisions of the act that every marshal and every assistant shall, before he enters upon them, take an oath or affirmation that he will faithfully perform them in the manner therein prescribed. Blank forms of these oaths, numbered 1, 2, and 7, have been transmitted to you in number sufficient to supply yourself and your assistants. Each set of oaths (or affirmations), after having been sworn to and duly authenticated, will be immediately returned to this Department on their receipt by the marshal.

The duties to be performed by your assistants, under the solemnity on an oath, are such as will require industry, intelligence, integrity, a facility and accuracy of computation, with an intimate knowledge of the division allotted to them respectively. They must, by the letter of the act, be residents of the county or city for which they shall be appointed, and each division may include one or more towns, townships, wards, hundreds, precincts, or parishes, which must be plainly and distinctly bounded, but a division must in no case exceed one county. You will carefully avoid the assignment of the same portion of the population to more than one assistant. Great inconvenience will be produced if there should be any interference by the assistants with each other.

Your assistants will observe that the act expressly requires the enumeration to be made by an actual inquiry at every dwelling house, or by personal inquiry of the head of every family, and not otherwise; and that the oath or affirmation, to be taken by them after the performance of this duty, and before they can receive compensation for the same, declares expressly that they have ascertained the numbers by such actual inquiry. The act requires that "the enumerations shall commence on the 1st day of June next, and close within ten calendar months thereafter; * * * and that the assistants shall, within nine months, or on or before the 1st day of October, 1840, deliver to the marshals, by whom they shall be appointed, respectively, two copies of the accurate returns of all persons, except Indians not taxed, to be enumerated as aforesaid, within their respective divisions." From the number of inquiries to be made at each house, it is obvious that the progress to be made by each assistant will be necessarily slow; and as there is a doubt, from the phraseology of the law, whether Congress did not intend that the enumeration should be completed by the 1st day of October, 1840, you will perceive the necessity of appointing a number of assistants adequate to effect that result. If the next Congress shall so determine. Each assistant must be enjoined not to lose a day in the performance of his task. I suggest, as advisable, proper precautions for meet the contingency of any of your assistants being disabled by sickness or otherwise from fulfilling his duties, and to supply immediately all places that may be vacated by any casualty.

To facilitate the labor of your assistants, a printed list of all the interrogatories for the enumeration of the people, and also the information required relative to mines, agriculture, commerce, manufactures, and schools, by the thirteenth section of the act, has been prepared and numbered 3 (No. 3), in which all the questions touching the enumeration (the answers to which are to be set down on schedule No. 4) refer to the 1st day of June, 1840, the day on which the enumeration is to commence. Your assistants will also bear in mind to include all persons of a family (except Indians not taxed) who were members thereof on the 1st day of June, whether present or not, and not include any person whose usual abode was not in the family they are enumerating on the said 1st day of June, 1840. They will, of course, include such persons as may have died after that day, and will not include in it infants born after that day. This, though not prescribed in express terms by the act, is the undoubted intention of the legislature, as manifested by the clause providing that every person shall be recorded as of the family in which he or she shall reside on the 1st day of June, 1840.

The execution of the fifth section of the act requires the further interrogatories, whether any person, whose usual abode was in the family on the 1st day of June, 1840, be absent therefrom at the time of making the inquiry; and if so, the sex, age, color, and condition are to be asked for, and marked in the proper column in the return of the family. It follows, of course, that any person who, at the time of taking the enumeration of any family, has his abode in it, is, nevertheless, not to be included in the return of that family if his usual place of abode was, on the 1st day of June, in another family. The name of every person having no settled place of residence is to be inserted in the column of the schedule allotted for the heads of families, in the division where such person shall be on the 1st day of June, and proper insertions, also, in other columns, according to the age and condition of such person.

Your assistants will see that, by the sixth section of the act, each and every free person more than 16 years of age, whether heads of families or not, belonging to any family within any division, district, or Territory, is obliged to render the assistant of the division, if required, a true account, to the best of his or her knowledge, of every person belonging to such family respectively, according to the several descriptions in the schedule, under a penalty of $20. They should, therefore, read that section to the person of whom they make the inquiry whenever it may be found necessary.

By the seventh section of the act, every assistant, before making his return to you, is required to cause correct copies, signed by himself, of the schedule containing the number of inhabitants within his division, to be set up at two of the most public places within the same for the inspection of all concerned—proof of which is to be transmitted to you by each of your assistants, and by you to the Department of State, with the return of the number of persons—upon failure of which the assistant will forfeit the compensation allowed him by the act. A form of the certificate to be written on the copy of the schedule (No. 4), which is to be transmitted, signed by two respectable witnesses, to the Department of State, has been prepared as a convenient mode of furnishing the proof required by the act.

One copy of the returns of enumeration, when received from all your assistants, is to be filed by you, together with an attested copy of the aggregate amount, to be made out by yourself, with the clerk of your district or superior court, who is directed to receive and carefully preserve them; and on or before the 1st day of December, 1840, you are to transmit to this Department one copy of the several returns received from each assistant—signed by each assistant respectively, and also by two respectable witnesses, that the same has been posted—and also one copy of the aggregate amount of each description of persons within your district, by which is to be understood, not merely the general aggregate amount of your whole district, but also the special aggregate of every subdivision of counties, cities, towns, township, parishes, precincts, hundreds, and districts, and the several wards in principal cities—blanks for which are transmitted, numbered 8 and 9.

For the purpose of securing uniformity in the mode of rendering accounts of compensation for taking the census or enumeration of inhabitants, the following instructions on that point are added: No compensation will be made on account of enumeration until the whole of your district shall have been completed, and the returns made to this Department. When that shall have been done, you will make out an abstract of the compensation, payable to your assistants, on the blank forms (No. 11) transmitted to you for that purpose. This you will return in duplicate to this Department, accompanied by the necessary affidavits and certificates. For their amount, when found correct, a remittance will be made to you, with which you will be charged on the books of the Treasury. You will then, without delay, pay to each assistant the amount to which he is entitled, taking his receipt therefor. When the payments shall be completed you will transmit an account current with the United States for those payments—for any postages paid by you, and not before drawn for—and for your own compensation, as allowed by the act, you will credit in it the sums remitted to you. This account must be accompanied by the receipts of the assistants, and for postages charged therein. On its adjustment, the balance appearing due to you will be remitted. As it is intended to transmit to you all the blank forms necessary for your own use, as well as for that of your assistants, and as the law authorizes no allowances to marshals except those specified in the act for their services and postages, no charge can be allowed for stationery or other incidental expenses, or for commission for disbursements to assistants or postmasters.

The twelfth section of the act provides that there shall be allowed and paid to the marshal of the several states and territories, and the District of Columbia, the amount of postage by them respectively paid on letters relating to their duties under this act.

The intention of the section referred to appears to be, that the assistants as well as the marshals should be relieved from the expense of postage in performing their duties under the act. You will, therefore, apportion the postage on all communications in relation to the census to, as well as from, your assistants, and charge the Department therewith.

It will, perhaps, be advisable for you to make an arrangement with the postmasters where you receive and mail your letters, etc., for the census, to keep an account of such postages, to be settled quarterly. His receipt therefor will be a voucher of your having made the payment. For its amount you may draw upon this Department, being careful that the postmaster's receipt either accompany or precede your draft. This latter precaution will be necessary to insure the payment of the draft. Blank forms of such receipts and drafts are prepared for the purpose.

Should any difficulty or obstacle occur to any of your assistants in performing the duty assigned to them, it is directed that they give you immediate notice thereof, that you may take measures for removing it, if within your power. Should any such occur to yourself, you are requested to make an immediate communication of it to me. Should a greater number of blank forms be required than have been transmitted to you, you will receive them on giving notice to this Department. You are requested to acknowledge promptly the receipt of every package or communication, and to be particularly attentive to direct your answers after the mode prescribed in the circular of the 5th of April.

I am, sir, your obedient servant, etc.

For the purpose of uniformity in the mode of rendering accounts of compensation for taking the census, or enumeration of inhabitants, the following instructions on that point are added:

1. No payments will be made in advance for this object. Payment will be made, for the whole amount of compensation in each district, to the marshal thereof. The assistants are to be apprised that they are to apply to the marshal alone for their compensation.
  2. As soon as the marshal has received the returns of all his assistants, he is to make out an abstract of their compensation, as in form No. 9, adding, at foot, the amount of his own compensation, as fixed by the act of 23d March, 1830.
  3. If any of the assistants are allowed more than at the rate of $1.25 for every 100 persons enumerated, there must be annexed, to the abstract of the account, the certificate of the district or territorial judge of the United States approving such additional allowance.
  4. The account of compensation is to be transmitted to this department, at the same time with the returns of the census.
  5. The act provides for the payment to the marshals, of the amount of postage by them respectively paid, on letters relating to their duties under this act. The charges under this head must be accompanied with the receipt of the postmaster, to whom such postage has been paid.
- Should any difficulty or obstacle occur to any of your assistants, in performing the duty assigned to him, it is directed that he give you immediately notice thereof, that you may take measures for removing it, if within your power. Should any such occur to yourself, you are requested to make immediate communication of it to me. A number, believed to be sufficient, of the copies of the act—of these instructions—and of the forms referred to in them—with the exception of Nos. 4, 8, and 9 is herewith transmitted, for the supply of yourself and assistants. Should more be required, you will receive them on giving notice to this department.
- The forms Nos. 4, and 8, in sufficient numbers for the enumeration of the whole of your district, and also a copy of No. 9, will be forwarded by subsequent mails, as soon as they are prepared. You are requested to acknowledge this package immediately on receipt.

I am, sir, respectfully your obedient servant,

M. VAN BUREN.

INSTRUCTIONS TO MARSHALS, ETC.—CENSUS OF 1840.

SIR: I herewith inclose a copy of "an act to provide for taking the sixth census or enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States."

You will perceive a discrepancy in the dates named in the law for the commencing and completing the census; until further legislation, the Department will continue the law to ordain, that the taking of the census or enumeration shall commence on the 1st day of June, 1840, and that it shall be completed and closed within ten calendar months thereafter (viz. April 1, 1841), and as nine months are given to the deputy marshals to make their returns to the marshals, the time will be held to terminate March 1, 1841.

The instructions and regulations to be given in pursuance of this act will be prepared in due season, and transmitted to you, together with blank forms and interrogatories, and a sufficient number of those blanks for the use of the whole number of deputies in your district. This course is adopted to produce a uniformity in all the official returns under the act referred to.

In the meantime, as the enumeration is to commence on the 1st day of June, 1840, you will please make a selection of your assistants and transmit to this Department a list of their names, and of the districts or divisions assigned to each.

On the perusal of the act, you will see the strong necessity of your selecting persons of ability and integrity, and possessing the additional qualification of diligent and industrious habits, skilled in accounts, and in all cases a thorough knowledge and acquaintance with the district assigned them.

In order that I may form some estimate of the probable number of blanks that will be required in your district, be pleased to note, on your list of assistants, the probable number of inhabitants in each assistant's division.

I will thank you to acknowledge this circular immediately, and to direct your answer to this, as well as all communications relating to the census, as follows:

"Department of State, Washington City, D.C.—Census."

And if it be practicable, it would conduce to the convenience of this Department that your letters should be written upon paper of the dimensions of this sheet.

SIR: I herewith inclose to you—copies of the Interrogatories (No. 3).

An additional number of the above-mentioned form has been printed and distributed, in order to disseminate a more general knowledge of the subject among the people, and to facilitate the attaining the objects of the law by the assistants. Copies are forwarded to you to the extent of—for each assistant, with the request that they be given every possible publicity, unattended with expense.

On referring to the thirteenth section of the act, you will perceive the strong necessity for acquainting the people in advance with the nature of the inquiries to be made of them, and to give them time for preparation to answer the questions promptly. The act requires (in that section) the marshals and their assistants "to collect and return (in statistical tables, under proper heads, according to such forms as shall be furnished) all such information in relation to mines, agriculture, commerce, manufactures, and schools, as will exhibit a full view of the pursuits, industry, education, and resources of the country." All the questions which are to be asked upon those subjects are contained in No. 3. If they be made known and generally understood before the enumeration commences, the answers to the Interrogatories will be prepared in time for the domiciliary visit of the assistant, and the responses promptly made.

In taking down the answers under the general heads in the statistical tables (No. 10), great caution will be required in all cases of copartnership to avoid multiplying returns from the different partners in manufactories, commercial houses, and companies of every description. The assistant, in propounding the interrogatories, must inform himself of the fact whether the individual interrogated is sole owner or is a partner only of a company. In the latter case, one individual of the firm or company must answer for the whole.

It will be expected of the assistants in carrying into effect this portion of the act, that in its full and exact meaning the returns will exhibit a full view of the pursuits, industry, education, and resources of the country. The inquiries must be carried home to every man: and it will require the utmost diligence to accomplish the object in the given period of time. When the importance of the subject is considered, and that no meager returns can be acceptable to the Government or the country, an assurance is felt by this Department that the duties will be faithfully performed.

An additional compensation to the assistants has been recommended to Congress by the Secretary of State, for the performance of this duty.

Objections, it has been suggested, may possibly arise on the part of some persons to give the statistical information required by the act, upon the ground of disinclination to expose their private affairs. Such, however, is not the intent, nor can be the effect, or answering ingenuously the interrogatories. On the statistical tables no name is inserted—the figures stand opposite no man's name; and therefore the objection can not apply. It is, moreover, intimated upon the assistant that he consider all communications made to him in the performance of this duty, relative to the business of the people, as strictly confidential.

INSTRUCTIONS TO MARSHALS—CENSUS OF 1830.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Washington, March 24, 1830.

To the Marshal of the United States for the District of—

SIR: I herewith inclose a copy of "An act to provide for taking the fifth census, or enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States."

The instructions and regulations to be given in pursuance of this act, will be prepared as soon as possible, and transmitted to you, together with blank forms and interrogatories, and a sufficient number of those blanks for the use of the whole number of deputies in your district. This course is adopted, to produce a uniformity in all the official returns under the act referred to.

In the meantime, to avoid any unnecessary delay, and as the enumeration is to commence on the first day of June next, you will please make a selection of your assistants as soon as possible, and transmit to this Department a list of their names, and of the districts or divisions assigned to each.

On the perusal of the act, you will see the necessity of your selecting persons of ability and integrity, and possessing the additional qualification of diligent and industrious habits, and particularly those competent in accounts.

In order that I may form some estimate of the probable number of blanks that will be required in your district, be pleased to note on the list of assistants, the probable number of inhabitants in each assistant's division.

I will thank you to acknowledge this circular immediately, and to direct your answer to this, as well as all communications relating to the census, as follows:

"Department of State, Washington City, D.C.—Census."

And if it be practicable, it would conduce to the convenience of this Department, that you letters should be written upon paper of the dimensions of this sheet.

I am, sir, respectfully, your obedient servant.

M. VAN BUREN.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Washington, April 15, 1830.

To the Marshal of the United States for the District of—

SIR: The "Act to provide for taking the fifth census, or enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States," copies of which are herewith transmitted, prescribes, that this enumeration shall be taken under the direction of the Secretary of State, and according to such instructions as he shall give, pursuant to the act. In obedience to the injunctions therein contained, the following instructions are now transmitted to you.

The means provided by the legislature, in the act, for the attainment of the objects enumerated, are in the appointment of the marshals of the several districts, and of such assistants as they may select, for the accomplishment of the returns within the period prescribed by law.

The importance of the duties assigned to these officers, by the act, is sufficiently indicated by the provisions, that every marshal and every assistant, shall, before he enters on the duties required by the act, take an oath or affirmation for the faithful performance of them; and that, after this performance, every assistant shall take a second oath, or affirmation, that he has faithfully performed these duties in the manner prescribed by the act. Blank forms of these oaths, numbered 1, 2, and 7, are herewith transmitted to you, in numbers sufficient to supply yourself and your assistants, and, for the sake of uniformity, the form of a certificate, to be subscribed by the magistrate who may administer the oath, is subjoined to it. It is directed that you transmit to this Department one copy of the certificate that you have, yourself, taken the oath required of the marshal; that you should require of all your assistants to deliver, or transmit to you, the certificates of their oaths, taken both before and after their returns, and that you return them to this Department, as they will be vouchers necessary for the settlement of your account. Each set of oaths (or affirmations) to be immediately transmitted to the Department on receipt by the marshal.

The duties to be performed by your assistants, under the solemnities of an oath, are such as will require arduous industry, active intelligence, pure integrity, great facility and accuracy of computation, and an intimate knowledge of the division allotted to them respectively. They must, by the letter of the act, be residents of the county or city for which they shall be appointed, and each division may include one or more towns, townships, wards, hundreds, precincts, or parishes, which must be plainly and distinctly bounded; but a division must, in no case, exceed one county. You will also use all suitable precautions, to avoid the assignment of the same portion of the population, to more than one assistant, and the inconvenience that any two of them should interfere with each other.

Your assistants will observe, that the act expressly requires the enumeration to be made by an actual inquiry at every dwelling house, or by personal inquiry of the head of every family, and not otherwise; and that the oath or affirmation to be taken by them, after the performance of this duty, and before they can receive compensation for the same, declares, expressly, that they have ascertained the numbers by such actual inquiry.

The act requires that the enumeration shall commence on the 1st day of June next, and shall close within six calendar months thereafter, and that the said assistant shall, on or before the 1st day of December, 1830, deliver to the marshals by whom they shall have been appointed, respectively, two copies of the accurate returns of all persons (except Indians not taxed) enumerated as aforesaid, within their respective divisions. From the number of inquiries to be made at every house, it is obvious that the progress to be made by each assistant will be necessarily slow; and as it is required that the enumeration shall be completed within the time prescribed, you will perceive the necessity of appointing a number of assistants adequate to that result, and each assistant must be enjoined not to lose a day in the performance of his task.

And I beg leave to suggest, as advisable, proper precautions to meet the contingency of any of your assistants being disabled by sickness, or otherwise, from accomplishing his duties, and to supply, immediately, the places of such as may be vacated by death, or other casualty.

To facilitate the labor of your assistants, a printed list of all the interrogatories for enumeration is inclosed (No. 3), in which all the questions refer to the day when the enumeration is to commence—the 1st day of next June. Your assistants will also bear in mind to include all persons of a family (except Indians not taxed) who were members thereof on the 1st day of June, 1830, whether present or not, and not to include any person whose usual abode was not in the family they are enumerating on the said 1st day of June. They will, of course, include such persons as may have deceased after that day, and will not include in it infants born after that day. This, though not prescribed in express terms by the act, is the undoubted intention of the legislature, as manifested by the clause, providing that every person shall be recorded as of the family in which he or she shall reside on the 1st day of June, 1830.

The execution of the fifth section of the act requires the further interrogatories, whether any person, whose usual abode was in the family on the 1st day of June, 1830, be absent therefrom at the time of making the inquiry, and if so, the sex, age, color, and condition, ere to be asked and marked in the proper column. In the return of the family, it follows, of course, that any person, who, at the time of taking the enumeration of any family, has his abode in it, is, nevertheless, not to be included in the return of that family, if his usual place of abode, was, on the 1st day of June, in another family. The name of every person, having no settled place of residence, is to be inserted in the column of the schedule, allotted for the heads of families. In the division where such person shall be on the 1st day of June, and, of course, also in one of the other columns, according to the age and condition of such person.

Your assistant will see, that, by the sixth section of the act, each and every free person, more than 16 years of age, whether heads of families or not, belonging to any family within any division, district, or territory, is obliged to render the assistant of the division, if required, a true account, to the best of his or her knowledge, of every person belonging to such family respectively, according to the several descriptions in the schedule, under a penalty of $20. They should, therefore, read that section to the person of whom they make the inquiry, whenever it may be found necessary.

By the seventh section of the act, every assistant, before making his return to you, is required to cause correct copies, signed by himself, of the schedule containing the number of inhabitants within his division, to be set up at two of the most public places within the same, for the inspection of all concerned: proof of which is to be transmitted to you by each of your assistants, and by you to the Department, with the return of the number of persons, upon failure of which, the assistant will forfeit the compensation allowed him by the act. A form of the certificate, to be written on the copy of the schedule No. 4, which is to be transmitted to the Department, signed by two respectable witnesses, is inclosed, as a convenient mode of furnishing the proof required by the act.

One copy of the returns of enumeration, when received from all your assistants, is to be filed by you, together with an attested copy of the aggregate amount, to be made out by yourself, in the clerk of your district, and such records are to be carefully preserved; and, on or before the 1st day of February, 1831, you are to transmit to this Department, one copy of the several returns received from each assistant, signed by each assistant respectively, and, also, by two respectable witnesses, that the same has been posted; and, also, one copy of the aggregate amount of each description of persons within your district: by which it is to be understood, not merely the general aggregate amount of your whole district, but also the special aggregate of every subdivision of counties, cities, towns, townships, parishes, precincts, hundreds, and districts, and the several wards in the principal cities.

No inconsiderable portion of the population will probably be found, the individuals of which being asked, to which of those classes they belong, will answer, to all three. Yet, it is obviously not the intention of the legislature that any one individual should be included in more than one of them — or those whose occupations are exclusively agricultural or commercial, there can seldom arise a question, and in the column of manufactures will be included not only all the persons employed in what the act more specifically denominates manufacturing establishments, but all those artificers, handicraftsmen, and mechanics, whose labor is preeminently of the hand, and not upon the field.

By persons engaged in agriculture, commerce, or manufactures, your assistants will understand that they are to insert in those columns, not whole families, including infants and superannuated persons, but only those thus engaged by actual occupation. This construction is given to the act, because it is believed to be best adapted to fulfill the intentions of the legislature, and because, being susceptible of the other, it might be differently construed by different persons employed in the enumeration, and thus destroy the uniformity of returns, essential to a satisfactory result.

Besides this enumeration of manufactures, the marshals and their assistants are required, by the tenth section of the act to take an account of the several manufacturing establishments and their manufactures, within their several districts, territories, or divisions; and the meaning of the legislature, by this provision, is illustrated by the clause in the oaths of the marshals and assistants, that they will take an account of the manufactures, except household manufactures, from which it seems fairly deducible, that, in the intention of the legislature, persons employed only upon household manufactures are not to be included in the column of persons bearing that denomination, the occupation of manufacturing being, in such cases, only incidental, and not the profession properly marking the class of society to which such individual belongs.

This, then, offers a criterion by which your assistants may select the column of occupation to which each individual may be set down; namely, to that which is the principal and not the occasional, or incidental, occupation of his life.

The more particular the account of manufactures can be made, the more satisfactory will the returns prove. Among the papers inclosed is an alphabetical list of manufactures (No. 6), which may facilitate the labor of your assistants, but which they will not consider as complete. It is intended merely to give a direction to their inquiries, and each of them will add to it every manufacture not included in it and of which he takes an account within his division. A printed form (No. 7) is likewise inclosed, of inquiries to be made in relation to manufacturing establishments, on a sheet of paper, upon which the information requested may be written and returned. In every case when it can be conveniently done, your assistant will do well to give this form to some person principally concerned in the manufacturing establishment, requesting him to give the information desired himself.

The execution of the fifth section of the act requires the further interrogatories, whether any person, whose usual abode was in the family on the first Monday of August, 1820, be absent therefrom at the time of the inquiry made: and, if so, the sex, age, color, and condition, of such person are to be asked, and marked in the proper column, in the return of the family. It follows, of course, that any person who, at the time of taking the number of any family, has his usual abode in it, is nevertheless, not to be included in the return of that family, if his usual place of abode was, on the first Monday of August, in another family. The name of every person having no settled place of residence, is to be inserted in the column of the schedule allotted for the heads of families in the division where such person shall be on the first Monday of August.

Your assistants will be careful to observe, however, an important distinction between the inquiries directly necessary to the enumeration, and those relating to manufactures; they will see, that, by the sixth section of the act, each and every free person, more than 16 years of age, whether heads of families or not, belonging to any family within any division, district, or territory, is obliged to render the assistant of the division, if required, a true account, to the best of his or her knowledge, of every person belonging to such family respectively, according to the several descriptions in the schedule, upon a penalty of $20; but, as the act lays no positive injunction upon any individual to furnish information upon the situation of his property, or his private concerns, the answers to all inquiries of that character must be altogether voluntary, and every one, to whom they are put or addressed, will be at liberty to decline answering them at all. This has been a principal motive for putting the inquiries pointed to the two kinds of information to be required, into separate and distinct forms. It is to be expected that some individuals will feel reluctant to give all the information desired in relation to manufactures; but, as the views of Congress in directing the collection of this information, were undoubtedly views of kindness toward the manufacturing interest in general, it is hoped, that the general sentiment among the persons included in that highly important class of our population will incline them to give all the information relating to their condition, which may enable the legislature hereafter to promote their interests by measures conciliating with them those of the other great and leading classes of society.

By the seventh section of the act, every assistant, before making his return to you, is required to cause a correct copy, signed by himself, of the schedule containing the number of inhabitants within his division, to be set up at two of the most public places within the same, there to remain for the inspection of all concerned; proof of which is to be transmitted to you by each of your assistants, with the return of the number of persons — upon failure of which the assistant will forfeit the compensation allowed him by the act. The time during which the copy of the schedule must thus remain set up is not specified; but must be presumed a reasonable time for the purposes obviously intended by this provision, namely, for the detection of errors which may have happened in the names of the heads of families and numbers of persons to be returned; a time within which all the inhabitants recorded in the schedule may have had a sufficient opportunity for the inspection thus offered them, and to point out the errors in it, to be corrected. A form of a certificate, to be signed by two respectable witnesses, and annexed to the schedule No. 1, is inclosed, as a convenient mode of furnishing the proof required by the act.

The returns of enumeration, when received from all your assistants, are to be filed by you, together with an attested copy of the aggregate amount, to be made out by yourself, with the clerk of your district (or superior) court, who are directed to receive and carefully preserve them. And on or before the 1st day of April next, you are to transmit to this Department the aggregate amount of each description of person within your district (or territory): by which is to be understood, not merely the general aggregate amount of your whole district, but also the special aggregate of every subdivision, of counties, towns, townships, cities, boroughs, and parishes, and, in the principal cities, of their several wards.

The return of manufactures collected by yourself, and those made to you by your assistants, you are to transmit, together with abstracts of the same, to this Department, at the same time with the aggregate of the enumeration. The form of an abstract, corresponding with the questions on the blank sheet (No. 7) from the answers to which it is to be compiled, is herewith transmitted and numbered (9).

With the forms of return is inclosed that of the aggregates to be compiled by you (No. 8) from all the returns, and a specimen of the manner in which they may be most conveniently filled up by each of your assistants. By taking a quire of common paper, or his return, to project beyond the edges of his book, he will always have under his eye the necessary guide to the proper columns in which entries are to be made, without being obliged to repeat the heading at the top of each sheet. Under the heading of each column, ciphered figures are also printed, denoting the different classes of persons, which, at a glance of the eye, will point to the column in which each entry is to be made.

For the purpose of uniformity in the mode of rendering the accounts of compensation for taking the census or enumeration of inhabitants, the following instructions on the point are added:

1. No payments will be made in advance from the Treasury for this object. On the rendering of the accounts by the marshals, the payments will be made at the Treasury, and the payment will be made, for the whole amount of compensation in each district or territory, to the marshal thereof. The assistants are to be apprised, that it is the marshal alone to whom they are to apply for their compensations.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That each and every assistant, previous to making his return to the marshal, shall cause a correct copy, signed by himself, of the schedule containing the number of inhabitants within his division, to be set up at two of the most public places within the same, there to remain for the inspection of all concerned; for each of which copies, the said assistant shall be entitled to receive five dollars: Provided, proof of the schedule having been set up, shall be transmitted to the marshal, with the return of the number of persons; and, in case any assistant shall fail to make such proof to the marshal, with the return of the number of persons, as aforesaid, he shall forfeit the compensation allowed him by this act.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of State shall be, and hereby is, authorized and required to transmit, to the marshals of the several districts and territories, regulations and instructions, pursuant to this act, for carrying the same into effect; and, also, the forms contained therein, of the schedule to be returned, and such other forms as may be necessary in carrying this act into execution, and proper interrogatories, to be administered by the several persons to be employed in taking the enumeration.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That those states composing two districts, and where a part of a county may be in each district, such county shall be considered as belonging to that district in which the courthouse of said county may be situated.

FOOTNOTES:

- <sup>1</sup>Charles County was created 3 Oct 1650 and was discontinued 28 Sep 1653. Part of the area was incorporated into Calvert County. A new Charles County was created 13 April 1658.
- <sup>2</sup>The present area of Howard County was originally a part of Anne Arundel County. In 1698 it was attached to Baltimore County. In 1727 the area was returned to Anne Arundel County. In 1838 it was made a separate county and named Howard County. Some lists show this county as being created in 1850, but that is the date that the Constitutional Convention formally recognized it as a new county. Many of the records date from the 1830's and 1840's.
- <sup>3</sup>Most of the area comprizing present-day Cecil County was originally attached to Kent County until 1659 when it was attached to Baltimore County from which Cecil County was created in 1674.
- <sup>4</sup>Worcester County was first established 22 Oct 1669 which layed claim to much of Delaware. By 1750 the Lords Proprietary abandoned the idea of the county. Morris L. Radoff states in The County Courthouses and Records of Maryland that there was no courthouse, pernaps no government and no records. Another Worcester County was formed in 1742 having no, or at least very little, relation with the "Old Worcester County".
- <sup>5</sup>Patuxent County was created 3 Oct 1650 and was renamed Worcester County 22 Oct 1669.

HEADS OF FAMILIES AT THE FIRST CENSUS

INTRODUCTION.

The First Census of the United States (1790) comprised an enumeration of the inhabitants of the present states of Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, and Virginia.

A complete set of the schedules for each state, with a summary for the counties, and in many cases for towns, was filed in the State Department, but unfortunately they are not now complete, the returns for the states of Delaware, Georgia, Kentucky, New Jersey, Tennessee, and Virginia having been destroyed when the British burned the Capitol at Washington during the War of 1812. For several of the states for which schedules are lacking it is probable that the Director of the Census could obtain lists which would present the names of most of the heads of families at the date of the First Census. In Virginia, state enumerations were made in 1782, 1783, 1784, and 1785, but the lists on file in the State Library include the names for only 39 of the 78 counties into which the state was divided.

The schedules of 1790 form a unique inheritance for the Nation, since they represent for each of the states concerned a complete list of the heads of families in the United States at the time of the adoption of the Constitution. The framers were the statesmen and leaders of thought, but those whose names appear upon the schedules of the First Census were in general the plain citizens who by their conduct in war and peace made the Constitution possible and by their intelligence and self-restraint put it into successful operation.

The total population of the United States in 1790, exclusive of slaves, as derived from the schedules was 3,231,533. The only names appearing upon the schedules, however, were those of heads of families, and as at that period the families averaged 6 persons, the total number was approximately 540,000, or slightly more than half a million. The number of names which is now lacking because of the destruction of the schedules is approximately 140,000, thus leaving schedules containing about 400,000 names.

The information contained in the published report of the First Census of the United States, a small volume of 56 pages, was not uniform for the several states and territories. For New England and one or two of the other states the population was presented by counties and towns; that of New Jersey appeared partly by counties and towns and partly by counties only; in other cases the returns were given by counties only. Thus the complete transcript of the names of heads of families, with accompanying information, presents for the first time detailed information as to the number of inhabitants—males, females, etc.—for each minor civil division in all those states for which such information was not originally published.

In response to repeated requests from patriotic societies and persons interested in genealogy, or desirous of studying the early history of the United States, Congress added to the sundry civil appropriation bill for the fiscal year 1907 the following paragraph:

The Director of the Census is hereby authorized and directed to publish, in a permanent form, by counties and minor civil divisions, the names of the heads of families returned at the First Census of the United States in seventeen hundred and ninety; and the Director of the Census is authorized, in his discretion, to sell said publications, the proceeds thereof to be covered into the Treasury of the United States, to be deposited to the credit of miscellaneous receipts on account of "Proceeds of sales of Government property:"

Provided, That no expense shall be incurred hereunder additional to appropriations for the Census Office for printing therefor made for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and seven; and the Director of the Census is hereby directed to report to Congress at its next session the cost incurred hereunder and the price fixed for said publications and the total received therefor.

The amount of money appropriated by Congress for the Census printing for the fiscal year mentioned was unfortunately not sufficient to meet the current requirement of the Office and to publish the transcription of the First Census, and no provision was made in the sundry civil appropriation bill for 1908 for the continuance of authority to publish these important records beyond the present fiscal year. Resources, however, were available for printing a small section of the work, and the schedules of New Hampshire, Vermont, and Maryland have been published.

It is to be hoped that Congress will again grant authority and money for the publication of the remaining schedules, in order that the entire series, so far as it exists, may be complete. For several of the states for which schedules are lacking it is probable that the Director of the Census could obtain lists which would present the names of most of the heads of families at the date of the First Census. In Virginia, for example, a state enumeration was made in 1785, of which some of the original schedules are still in existence. These would be likely to prove a reasonably satisfactory substitute for the Federal list made five years later.

THE FIRST CENSUS.

The First Census act was passed at the second session of the First Congress, and was signed by President Washington on March 1, 1790. The task of making the first enumeration of inhabitants was placed upon the President. Under this law the marshals of the several judicial districts were required to ascertain the number of inhabitants within their respective districts, omitting Indians not taxed, and distinguishing free persons (including those bound to service for a term of years); the sex and color of free persons; and the number of free males 16 years of age and over.

The object of the inquiry last mentioned was, undoubtedly, to obtain definite knowledge as to the military and industrial strength of the country. This fact possesses special interest, because the Constitution directs merely an enumeration of inhabitants. Thus the demand for increasingly extensive information, which has been so marked a characteristic of census legislation, began with the First Congress that dealt with the subject.

The method followed by the President in putting into operation the First Census law, although the object of extended investigation, is not definitely known. It is supposed that the President or the Secretary of State dispatched copies of the law, and perhaps of instructions also, to the marshals. There is, however, some ground for disputing this conclusion. At least one of the reports in the census volume of 1790 was furnished by a governor. This, together with the fact that there is no record of correspondence with the marshals on the subject of the census, but that there is a record of such correspondence with the governors, makes very strong the inference that the marshals received their instructions through the governors of the states. This inference is strengthened by the fact that in 1790 the state of Massachusetts furnished the printed blanks, and also by the fact that the law relating to the Second Census specifically charged the Secretary of State to superintend the enumeration and to communicate directly with the marshals.

By the terms of the First Census law nine months were allowed in which to complete the enumeration.

The census taking was supervised by the marshals of the several judicial districts, who employed assistant marshals to act as enumerators. There were 17 marshals. The records showing the number of assistant marshals employed in 1790, 1800, and 1810 were destroyed by fire, but the number employed in 1790 has been estimated at 650.

The schedules which these officials prepared consist of lists of names of heads of families; each name appears in a stub, or first column, which is followed by five columns, giving details of the family. These columns are headed as follows:

Free white males, 16 years and upward, including heads of families.

Free white males under 16 years.

Free white females, including heads of families.

All other free persons.

Slaves.

The assistant marshals made two copies of the returns; in accordance with the law one copy was posted in the immediate neighborhood for the information of the public, and the other was transmitted to the marshal in charge, to be forwarded to the President. The schedules were turned over by the President to the Secretary of State. Little or no tabulation was required, and the report of the First Census, as also the reports of the Second, Third, and Fourth, was produced without the employment of any clerical force, the summaries being transmitted directly to the printer. The total population as returned in 1790 was 3,929,214, and the entire cost of the census was $44,377.

A summary of the results of the First Census, not including the returns for South Carolina, was transmitted to Congress by President Washington on October 27, 1791. The legal period for enumeration, nine months, had been extended, the longest time consumed being eighteen months in South Carolina. The report of October 27 was printed in full, and published in what is now a very rare little volume; afterwards the report for South Carolina was "tipped in." To contain the results of the Twelfth Census, ten large quarto volumes, comprising in all 10,400 pages, were required. No illustration of the expansion of census inquiry can be more striking.

The original schedules of the First Census are now contained in 26 bound volumes, preserved in the Census Office. For the most part the headings of the schedules were written in by hand. Indeed, up to and including 1820, the assistant marshals generally used for the schedules such paper as they happened to have, ruling it, writing in the headings, and binding the sheets together themselves. In some cases merchants' account paper was used, and now and then the schedules were bound in wall paper.

As a consequence of requiring marshals to supply their own blanks, the volumes containing the schedules vary in size from about 7 inches long, 3 inches wide, and  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch thick to 21 inches long, 14 inches wide, and 6 inches thick. Some of the sheets in these volumes are only 4 inches long, but a few are 3 feet in length, necessitating several folds. In some cases leaves burned at the edges have been covered with transparent silk to preserve them.

THE UNITED STATES IN 1790.

In March, 1790, the Union consisted of twelve states—Rhode Island, the last of the original thirteen to enter the Union, being admitted May 29. Vermont, the first addition, was admitted in the following year, before the results of the First Census were announced. Maine was a part of Massachusetts, Kentucky was a part of Virginia, and the present states of Alabama and Mississippi were parts of Georgia. The present states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin, with part of Minnesota, were known as the Northwest Territory, and the present state of Tennessee, then a part of North Carolina, was soon to be organized as the Southwest Territory.

The United States was bounded on the west by the Mississippi river, beyond which stretched that vast and unexplored wilderness belonging to the Spanish King, which was afterwards ceded to the United States by France as the Louisiana Purchase, and now comprises the great and populous states of Louisiana, Arkansas, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, and Montana, and most of Colorado, Wyoming, and Minnesota. The Louisiana Purchase was not completed for more than a decade after the First Census was taken. On the south was another Spanish colony known as the Floridas. Texas, then a part of the colony of Mexico, belonged to Spain; and California, Utah, Arizona, and New Mexico, also the property of Spain, although penetrated here and there by venturesome explorers and missionaries, were, for the most part, an undiscovered wilderness.

The gross area of the United States was 827,844 square miles, but the settled area was only 239,935 square miles, or about 29 per cent of the total. Though the area covered by the enumeration in 1790 seems very small when compared with the present area of the United States, the difficulties which confronted the census taker were vastly greater than in 1900. In many localities there were no roads, and where these did exist they were poor and frequently impassable; bridges were almost unknown. Transportation was entirely by horseback, stage, or private coach. A journey as long as that from New York to Washington was a serious undertaking, requiring eight days under the most favorable conditions. Western New York was a wilderness, Elmira and Binghamton being but detached hamlets. The territory west of the Allegheny mountains, with the exception of a portion of Kentucky, was unsettled and scarcely penetrated. Detroit and Vincennes were too small and isolated to merit consideration. Philadelphia was the capital of the United States. Washington was a mere Government project, not even named, but known as the Federal City. Indeed, by the spring of 1793, only one wall of the White House had been constructed, and the site for the Capitol had been merely surveyed. New York city in 1790 possessed a population of only 33,131, although it was the largest city in the United States; Philadelphia was second, with 28,522; and Boston third, with 18,320. Mails were transported in very irregular fashion, and correspondence was expensive and uncertain.

There were, moreover, other difficulties which were of serious moment in 1790, but which long ago ceased to be problems in census taking. The inhabitants, having no experience with census taking, imagined that some scheme for increasing taxation was involved, and were inclined to be cautious lest they should reveal too much of their own affairs. There was also opposition to enumeration on religious grounds, a count of inhabitants being regarded by many as a cause for divine displeasure. The boundaries of towns and other minor divisions, and even those of counties, were in many cases unknown or not defined at all. The hitherto semi-independent states had been under the control of the Federal Government for so short a time that the different sections had not yet been welded into an harmonious nationality in which the Federal authority should be unquestioned and instructions promptly and fully obeyed.

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE ENUMERATION OF THE INHABITANTS OF THE UNITED STATES

APPROVED MARCH 1, 1790

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the marshals of the several districts of the United States shall be, and they are hereby authorized and required to cause the number of the inhabitants within their respective districts to be taken; omitting in such enumeration Indians not taxed, and distinguishing free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, from all others; distinguishing also the sexes and colours of free persons, and the free males of sixteen years and upwards from those under that age; for effecting which purpose the marshals shall have power to appoint as many assistants within their respective districts as to them shall appear necessary; assigning to each assistant a certain division of his district, which division shall consist of one or more counties, cities, towns, townships, hundreds or parishes, or of a territory plainly and distinctly bounded by water courses, mountains, or public roads. The marshals and their assistants shall respectively take an oath or affirmation, before some judge or justice of the peace, resident within their respective districts, previous to their entering on the discharge of the duties by this act required. The oath or affirmation of the marshal shall be, "I, A. B., Marshal of the district of —, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will well and truly cause to be made a just and perfect enumeration and description of all persons resident within my district, and return the same to the President of the United States, agreeably to the directions of an act of Congress, intitled 'An act providing for the enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States,' according to the best of my ability." The oath or affirmation of an assistant shall be "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will make a just and perfect enumeration and description of all persons resident within the division assigned to me by the marshal of the district of —, and make due return thereof to the said marshal, agreeably to the directions of an act of Congress, intitled 'An act providing for the enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States,' according to the best of my ability." The enumeration shall commence on the first Monday in August next, and shall close within nine calendar months thereafter. The several assistants shall, within the said nine months, transmit to the marshals by whom they shall be respectively appointed, accurate returns of all persons, except Indians not taxed, within their respective divisions, which returns shall be made in a schedule, distinguishing the several families by the names of their master, mistress, steward, overseer, or other principal person therein, in manner following, that is to say:

The number of persons within my division, consisting of —, appears in a schedule hereto annexed, subscribed by me this — day of —, 179—. A. B. Assistant to the marshal of —.

Schedule of the whole number of persons within the division allotted to A. B.

Names of heads of families.	Free white males of 16 years and upwards, including heads of families.	Free white males under 16 years.	Free white females, including heads of families.	All other free persons.	Slaves.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That every assistant failing to make return, or making a false return of the enumeration to the marshal, within the time by this act limited, shall forfeit the sum of two hundred dollars.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That the marshals shall file the several returns aforesaid, with the clerks of their respective district courts, who are hereby directed to receive and carefully preserve the same: And the marshals respectively shall, on or before the first day of September, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, transmit to the President of the United States, the aggregate amount of each description of persons within their respective districts. And every marshal failing to file the returns of his assistants, or any of them, with the clerks of their respective district courts, or failing to return the aggregate amount of each description of persons in their respective districts, as the same shall appear from said returns, to the President of the United States within the time limited by this act, shall, for every such offense, forfeit the sum of eight hundred dollars; all which forfeitures shall be recoverable in the courts of the districts where the offenses shall be committed, or in the circuit courts to be held within the same, by action of debt, information or indictment; the one-half thereof to the use of the United States, and the other half to the informer; but where the prosecution shall be first instituted on the behalf of the United States, the whole shall accrue to their use. And for the more effectual discovery of offenses, the judges of the several district courts, at their next sessions, to be held after the expiration of the time allowed for making the returns of the enumeration hereby directed, to the President of the United States, shall give this act in charge to the grand juries, in their respective courts, and shall cause the returns of the several assistants to be laid before them for their inspection.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted, That every assistant shall receive at the rate of one dollar for every one hundred and fifty persons by him returned, where such persons reside in the country; and where such persons reside in a city, or town, containing more than five thousand persons, such assistants shall receive at the rate of one dollar for every three hundred persons; but where, from the dispersed situation of the inhabitants in some divisions, one dollar for every one hundred and fifty persons shall be insufficient, the marshals, with the approbation of the judges of their respective districts, may make such further allowance to the assistants in such divisions as shall be deemed an adequate compensation, provided the same does not exceed one dollar for every fifty persons by them returned. The several marshals shall receive as follows: The marshal of the district of Maine, two hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of New Hampshire, two hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of Massachusetts, three hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of Connecticut, two hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of New York, three hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of New Jersey, two hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of Pennsylvania, three hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of Delaware, one hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of Maryland, three hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of Virginia, five hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of Kentucky, two hundred and fifty dollars; the marshal of the district of North Carolina, three hundred and fifty dollars; the marshal of the district of South Carolina, three hundred dollars; the marshal of the district of Georgia, two hundred and fifty dollars. And to obviate all doubts which may arise respecting the persons to be returned, and the manner of making the returns.

SECTION 5. Be it enacted, That every person whose usual place of abode shall be in any family on the aforesaid first Monday in August next, shall be returned as of such family; the name of every person, who shall be an inhabitant of any district, but without a settled place of residence, shall be inserted in the column of the aforesaid schedule, which is allotted for the heads of families, in that division where he or she shall be on the said first Monday in August next, and every person occasionally absent at the time of the enumeration, as belonging to that place in which he usually resides in the United States.

SECTION 6. And be it further enacted, That each and every person more than 16 years of age, whether heads of families or not, belonging to any family within any division of a district made or established within the United States, shall be, and hereby is, obliged to render to such assistant of the division, a true account, if required, to the best of his or her knowledge, of all and every person belonging to such family, respectively, according to the several descriptions aforesaid, on pain of forfeiting twenty dollars, to be sued for and recovered by such assistant, the one-half for his own use, and the other half for the use of the United States.

SECTION 7. And be it further enacted, That each assistant shall, previous to making his return to the marshal, cause a correct copy, signed by himself, of the schedule containing the number of inhabitants within his division, to be set up at two of the most public places within the same, there to remain for the inspection of all concerned; for each of which copies the said assistant shall be entitled to receive two dollars, provided proof of a copy of the schedule having been so set up and suffered to remain, shall be transmitted to the marshal, with the return of the number of persons; and in case any assistant shall fail to make such proof to the marshal, he shall forfeit the compensation by this act allowed him.

Approved March 1, 1790.
